Notice: WINTER STORM WARNING

To all Trade Waste Licensees and Registrants:

The National Weather Service has issued a Winter Storm Warning for New York City that remains in effect from 3:00 AM on January 25, 2026 to 6:00 PM January 26, 2026. Heavy snow is expected with a possible total accumulation of 10 to 14 inches. Roads and bridges may become slick, and visibility could be reduced due to falling and blowing snow. More detailed forecast information is available here.

BIC urges licensees and registrants to take all necessary precautions during their operations while the winter storm warning is in effect.

REMEMBER TO:

- Use extreme caution when driving – it is essential for owners and managers to support their drivers.
- Check the road conditions before beginning a route.
- Have contingency plans – if weather conditions are deemed too dangerous for the safe operation of vehicles, cease operations until they can be resumed safely.
