

NYC Department of Correction – June 2018
PREA Investigations Corrective Action Plan

Current PREA Investigations Division Caseload

The current total PREA caseload is approximately 1,295. This includes cases from 2015 through present that fall under PREA-reportable criteria. All cases are investigated within the first 72 hours of the allegation.

The average approximate caseload of investigators carrying PREA cases is 95, since they are tasked with also investigating cases that are not PREA-reportable, such as one-time sexual harassment allegations. Counting non-PREA reportable cases, the total caseload managed by the ID PREA Team is 2,275.

Cases Over 90 Days

Out of the 1,295 PREA-reportable cases, 1,216 are over 90 days old.

Current PREA Investigations Staffing

The Investigation Division (“ID”) PREA team consists of 19 investigators; there are approximately 536 cases out of the 2,275 being carried by ID Investigators not currently assigned to the “PREA team.”

Goals

Staffing: 30 investigators, 6 supervising investigators and 2 Deputy Directors.

Caseload per PREA investigator: 30 or less.
