

Writing to express my concern that NYC DOC is considering banning book charities from sending prisoners books. Please explain the motivation and rationale behind this new development, as I will be contacting congressional representatives to express concern as well.

Thank you,
Claire Zamudio