

To whom it may concern,

Please allow nonprofits to continue to send free books to prisoners at Rikers. I work with one of the many such nonprofits and have read hundreds of letters from people incarcerated for whom books have made a vital difference. Seeing firsthand how many are either poor/indigent I truly worry that restricting their book access to large companies like Amazon will affect their access.

Thank you for your consideration,
Saraj O. Strom