Jackson Development

Mr. William Bollinger said that Jackson Development was proposing a redevelopment project at 20 Bruckner Boulevard.

The New York City Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) is getting ready to make a decision as to where they will be relocating HRA's administrative offices and we would like to show them that our location at Bruckner Boulevard is the most desirable.

In bringing HRA to Bruckner Boulevard we would be adding hundreds of jobs to the neighborhood.

The proposed project would cost $20 million dollars for redevelopment. Schematics on the project were distributed to the committee.
