After discussion as to the benefit of gathering rules and regulations to be followed by Montefiore Emergency then we can discuss if they are following procedures. In addition to verification of complaints; with specific incidents, date, time etc.

It was agreed for District Manager and Naita Semaj to write a letter of invitation to the Joint Commission for the June meeting. The letter will request a “Report Card” for Montefiore Weiler and a request for the number of emergency room admissions and the number of emergency room RE-admissions for the same patient. Obtain a list of violations and Labor & Delivery complaints as suggested by Efrain Gonzalez.

It was agreed to also sent an invite to the NYS Department of Health. If the Joint Commission is unable to attend the June meeting, it was agreed to hold a meeting in July.

The Health & Human Services Committee will have the Healthy Lifestyle Walk on Sat. June 30 at 10 am at Maritime College. Board Office to make the arrangements.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:30 pm.
