Meeting commenced at 7:00 P.M by Pledge of Allegiance. The Hammond Cove project is a Hurricane Sandy project. The project is $3.6 million which was allocated in FY16. The City Council allocated around $420,000. The marina was built in the 1920s. Th design phase is scheduled to be completed in March 2022. The folks, Bulkheads, pilings, wooden pathways will be repaired. There will be electrical upgrades. The boat storage yard will have new outlets. A utility shed will be constructed. There will be new asphalt. A timber Barrier will be added as part of a designated walkway.

The committee recommended to submit a conditional letter of support. The motion was submitted by R. Bieder and seconded by T. Smith. C. Isales objected. All other committee members approved.

August 3rd is National Night Out at Westchester Square.

The meeting concluded at 7:45 P.M. by a vote of adjournment.
