Meeting commenced at 7:06PM. There is a financial seminar tomorrow at the UFT Building. It will teach how to develop nonprofit status and grant writing and will begin at 6PM. On Saturday, there is a Fall Festival at Ms. Torres' food pantry at St. Benedict Church.

Superintendent Joynt introduced herself and has served District 8 for over twenty-years. Ms. Joynt expressed the need for crossing guards at area schools. Middle School Fair on 11/1 at MS 131 from 5 to 7PM. On 11/2, there will be Bronx high school fair at UFT Building from 5 to 7 PM. Ms. Joynt took questions from committee members. There were questions on better accessibility within the fairs and the need for more school safety officers and crossing guards.

Good Shepherd Services is now the beacon programming at Truman High School. Change Brown presented and took questions. The program reached 300 participants. Summer programming saw 110 participants. Sports fitness, literacy, archery, photography, and cooking are some of the program components. The committee's goals are to have safe growth, expand services and continuing the outreach to the Co-op City Community.

Meeting closed at roughly 8:45PM.
