October 15, 2019
Public Safety Committee Meeting

Present: Yahay Obeid; Veronica Castro.

Excused: Joseph Schaentzler; Tasneem Aljayyousi.

Absent: Eliezer Rodriguez.

Guests: Police Officer Graham; Police Officer Bruncutelliis; Gene DeFrancis, Allerton Merchants Association; Michael Mercadane.

Meeting Called to order at 7:05 pm.

The committee introduced the new community affairs officer PO Graham. PO Graham has been with the department for 5 years and was previously an NCO.

- PO Graham gave a short briefing:
- Columbus Day Parade ran smooth without a glitch
- Robberies and burglaries are on the rise
- Lock your doors and windows

Yahay Obeid had some questions regarding residential alarms and how the NYPD usually responds to them.

Sackett Ave resident attended the meeting and had 3 complaints, which were similar to last month's meeting:

- FedEx tractor trailers driving through Sackett Ave
- Vehicles parking on the left-hand side of Sackett Ave over the curb
- Garbage on Sackett Ave

Gene DeFrancis asked if the NYPD was aware of the fights that break out near PS 89. PO Graham said the department is aware of it but has most of their resources at Columbus HS.

There was no update on the meth clinic proposed for 2500 Williamsbridge Rd, the community is still pushing back on it being located there.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:38 pm.

Minutes taken and typed by Yahay Obeid, formatted by staff.
