Public Safety Committee Meeting
September 15, 2020
Zoom

MINUTES

PRESENT: Yahay Obeid, Chair; Veronica Castro, Co-chair; and Eliezer Rodriguez

EXCUSED: Tasneem Aljayyousi

ABSENT: Maleny Lahoz; and Joseph Schaentzler

GUEST(S): Robert Press, Council Member King's Office; Mariel De La Cruz – City Comptroller's Office; and Yessenia Moreno, CUNY School of Journalism

1. The Committee didn't have a quorum, but the three present members felt that it was still important to discuss matters beginning at 7:07 p.m.
2. The NYPD could not join the meeting.
The committee members spoke about attendance...and site visits.
3. Robert Press asked why liquor license renewals are performed by the Economic Development Committee and not Public Safety. The committee members advised him that we'll get an answer to that.
Mr. Press also shared his concerns regarding the unity and consistency of community boards in the Bronx.
4. The committee members are looking to focus on homelessness and, as preparation for a second wave of Covid-19, plans to meet via Zoom next month.
5. Yessenia Moreno introduced herself and said she is focusing on the education sector and homelessness.
6. Old Business
The committee members discussed the survey that it conducted last year. Two thirds of community board members were opposed to the bail reform that went into effect on January 1 of this year.
7. Meeting adjourned at 7:35 p.m.
