officer observed a person driving an illegal bike which was stopped, in addition this

- individual had a loaded firearm in their bookbag and brought to precinct where they were wanted for homicide as well
- Officers continued to be trained for Neighborhood Safety Teams -no new updates
- Public should be aware of their surroundings especially with motorbikes on street – if there is a pattern the public should let the precinct know so officers can review
- Precinct working with local business such as McDonalds regarding delivery services who are using motorbikes
- Motorbikes gas or electric have to follow laws – NYPD will enforce with summons
- Parking on Mosholu parkway some NYPD cars have been moved from bus lane which is in front of precinct
- Kudos to NYPD for adding signage regarding loud noise around Woodlawn Cemetery
- North on Jerome where it meets Bainbridge many busses are stopped there, and cars keep swerve around yellow lines request for better patrol with NYPD traffic
- If public is interested they can reach out to NYPD 52nd Precinct about volunteering in handing out / posting flyers about fireworks
