- II. Opening:
 - A. Meeting started at 6:30pm. Committee chair, John Snider opened the meeting by introducing committee members and non-committee members
- III. Review of Minutes:
 - A. Minutes from previous meeting were approved by board members
- IV. Old Business:
 - A. The issue of noise complaints was brought up and addressed, the complaint centered around the Mangu- Sabroso Restaurant located at 80 W. Kingsbridge Road where loud noise could be hear as late as 4am in the morning. A number of 311 calls were placed but to no avail. The 52nd Precinct officer John DINOIA reported that the volume of calls and the complaints were not of the highest priorities given the type and nature of other calls coming into the precinct. It was decided to invite representatives from the restaurant to the Public Safety and Quality of Life December meeting scheduled for December 3rd
- V. New Business:
 - A. Shot spotter initiative:
 1. Officer Dinoia explained the system remains fairly new and the PD are still collecting data on the effectiveness of the program
 - B. Dog attacking another dog:
 1. The issue was brought to the floor; however, currently there are no criminal actions a dog owner can take if their dog is attacked by another dog. However, is the possibility of a civil case can be filed?
 - C. Officer Dinoia briefly discussed a new initiative, entitled "zone policing" that hopefully be instituted within the next six-nine months. Zone policing will allow one or more police to be assigned to particular neighborhoods in the community and the goal of getting to know the various members of the community from residents to store owners
- VI. Next meeting date: December 3rd, 2015
- VII. Adjournment
