Dear Women's Issues Committee members:

I am informing you that our long-term co-chair Tish Cianciotta has resigned from the community board number 1 and therefore will no longer play this roll. Marie Leanza has agreed to take the role. Let us celebrate Tish's contributions and welcome Marie to her new job.

The agenda for our meeting is as follows:

1. State Senator Julia Salazar, will inform us of her work on bringing $3.5 Million for the Women's Pavilion Renovation. at Woodhall Hospital.

She will answer questions about the amazing contributions will provide for the women of Williamsburg/Greenpoint.

2. Seeking support for the All Along Project: Jane Pool of Neighborhood Women and Jan, a local architect

Jan, Lea a local architect will present a power point story of it. This initiative will honor the work women have contributed to the community.

3. The Launching of a local campaign against sexual and other harassment: making it difficult for all people especially women to enjoy public space, bars, hiking trails, etc: Debra Bender and jane pool will present tools for the community to begin to fight back
