Center for Environmental Research and Conservation

Earth Institute/Columbia University

Certificate in Conservation and Environmental Sustainability

CERC's Certificate Program provides professionals with the knowledge and tools to be effective environmental leaders and decision makers in the 21st century. It is an evening program in which environmental issues are discussed, debated and examined, where participants develop an in-depth understanding of conservation science and practice through case studies and a focus on Environmental Policy.

CERC's Certificate Program accommodates the working professional:

- Classes are held from 6p.m. to 8p.m. at Columbia University in New York City (with access to all University facilities)
- Courses meet once a week for five weeks
- Weekend field courses are offered but not required

For more information on the Certificate Program please download the certificate program brochure \(PDF\) from www.cerc.columbia.edu/certicate
