OTA: INQUIRIES & COMPLAINTS

COMPLAINTS

- Additionally, OTA conducted proactive portfolio research in 1003 buildings identified as at risk and referred 10 Tenant Protection Plans for audit.

OTA: TENANT COMMUNICATION

OTA interacts with tenants on a regular basis and serves as a resource to community-based organizations, City/State/Federal elected officials, and government agencies.

The following describes OTA's communication efforts to Tenants:

- OTA staff worked with HPD to jointly draft and publish a uniform vacate order guide that provides resources for tenants affected by a city-issued vacate order. The brochure is handed out by the American Red Cross at the time of the vacate order and made available by the Office of Emergency Management.

- OTA participates in the bi-monthly meetings of the North Brooklyn Housing Task Force with local community groups, elected officials, and City/State agencies.
- OTA's contact information is listed on DOB's website. OTA can be reached by phone at (212) 393-2550 or email at tenantadvocate@buildings.nyc.gov.
- NEW Tenants can also complete a fillable complaint form and send it to OTA via email.

If you're concerned your landlord is failing to maintain your residence and putting tenant safety at risk, our Office of the Tenant Advocate can help!

Construction can be noisy, dusty and disruptive. Living in a building that is undergoing renovation or construction can be difficult, but conditions should never be dangerous or present hazards to occupants. DOB works to help minimize the impact of construction on existing tenants through OTA.

Every year the @nycpa puts out a list of the worst landlords in the City using violation data from DOB & @NYCHousing, creating a reliable who's who list of bad actors in housing.

Starting in 2025 DOB is using our data to go on offense with a new proactive enforcement strategy💪

Office of the Public Advocate Jumaane D. Williams @nyc... · Jan 22

Landlords on the Worst Landlord Watchlist are, in the Public Advocate's words, "at best dangerously negligent, and at worst, actively choosing to profit off the pain of New Yorkers living in unsafe, deplorable conditions."

Every month we publish an Enforcement Bulletin highlighting some of DOB's actions to sanction and deter bad actors in the construction industry.

That includes suspending/revoking licenses and issuing $$$thousands in penalties.

See the most recent: nyc.gov/assets/buildin...

DOB completed several major enforcement actions in November, including:

- 8 violations and $110,000 in penalties issued for Failure to Safeguard construction sites at 8 locations.
- 19 violations and $407,625 in penalties, including daily penalties, issued for illegal building alterations at 3 locations.
- 1 violation and $10,000 in penalties issued to 1 individual for failure to carry out the duties of a construction superintendent.

In New York City, landlords are required to have an active contract with an approved elevator company, and to make needed repairs immediately.

Residents in buildings with nonworking elevators are strongly encouraged to call our friends @nyc311 and file a report so the elevators can be inspected!
