CCRB ANNOUNCES DEPARTURE OF INTERIM CHAIR DR.
MOHAMMAD KHALID FROM THE BOARD

NEW YORK – On Friday, November 7, 2025, Dr. Mohammad Khalid submitted his formal resignation from his duties at the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB).

Born in Peshawar, Pakistan, Dr. Khalid immigrated to New York City in 1972 at the age of 23. His dental practice in Eltingville, Staten Island has been a steadfast neighborhood institution since 1977. He has also been a committed public servant for many years, previously serving on the Civilian Complaint Review Board from 2005-2014.

His tenure as Interim Chair of the CCRB saw great steps forward for the Agency.

He advocated for an increased budget and headcount to help fulfill the work of civilian oversight of police. He led by example in letting the values of objectivity and impartiality guide his decision-making.

He cared deeply about each case he reviewed, and he always sought to follow the law and the facts, no matter what.

The CCRB and its entire staff wish him the best as he departs the Agency, and it thanks him for his tireless effort and the lasting impact he had as its leader.

The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) is the largest police oversight entity in the nation and is empowered to investigate, mediate, prosecute, and recommend disciplinary action for complaints alleging misconduct by NYPD officers. See NYC Charter § 440(c)(1). The agency's jurisdiction includes excessive and unnecessary force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and use of offensive language. To further this mission, CCRB issues monthly, biannual, and special statistical and qualitative reports analyzing trends and recurring issues arising from the many thousands of civilian complaints it receives each year.
