CCRB ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF KEVIN MCGINN TO THE BOARD

NEW YORK – The Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) has announced that Kevin McGinn has been appointed to the Board. McGinn was designated by Police Commissioner Jessica Tisch and approved by Mayor Eric Adams.

"I have said for years that public safety and justice are the prerequisites to prosperity — and, in our city, having a strong Civilian Complaint Review Board is vital to achieving it," said New York City Mayor Eric Adams. "Kevin McGinn's decades of dedication to city service and prior experience as a law enforcement leader will play a pivotal role in furthering the board's mission of ensuring justice and fairness for all New Yorkers."

"Kevin McGinn has been a dedicated servant to public safety in New York City," said CCRB Interim Chair Pat Smith. "He brings many years of experience with the NYPD as well as in the private sector, and I look forward to working alongside him."

"I wish to thank Mayor Adams and Commissioner Tisch for appointing me to the CCRB as a Police Commissioner designee," said Board Member Kevin McGinn. "I am pleased to serve the people of New York City and to work alongside my fellow Board Members, and I look forward to following the facts and the law impartially and in an unbiased fashion."

About Kevin McGinn

Kevin McGinn is a career public safety professional following 20 years of service with the New York Police Department, retiring as Deputy Inspector. During his tenure, he served as the commanding officer of the 123rd Precinct on Staten Island and the 63rd Precinct in Brooklyn. Since retiring from the department, Mr. McGinn has continued to serve New Yorkers and his community as a public safety leader for organizations including the Garment District Alliance. He received his bachelor's degree from St. Joseph's University in Brooklyn, New York. Mr. McGinn is a police commissioner designee to the Board appointed by Mayor Eric Adams.

The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) is the largest police oversight entity in the nation and is empowered to investigate, mediate, prosecute, and recommend disciplinary action for complaints alleging misconduct by NYPD officers. See NYC Charter § 440(c)(1). The agency's jurisdiction includes excessive and unnecessary force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and use of offensive language. To further this mission, CCRB issues monthly, biannual, and special statistical and qualitative reports analyzing trends and recurring issues arising from the many thousands of civilian complaints it receives each year.
