2 MR. DAVIE: Hi. I'd like to call
3 this meeting Wednesday, December 12, 2018,
4 meeting of the Civilian Complaint Review
5 Board to order.

6 And before I give a few brief
7 remarks, I'd like to entertain a motion to 11 MR. DAVIE: Is there a second?

2 meeting. As is the case with many of us
3 the end of the year is a time for
4 reflection. It's a time for reflection
5 for me and I've been thinking a great deal
6 about my time at CCRB over the last year.

7 At about this time in 2017, Mayor
8 de Blasio appointed me as acting chair of 9 the agency. At the time I had been a
10 member of the board for a little over a
11 year. And I quickly learned being chair 12 -- that with being chair comes a whole new 13 level of responsibility.

14 Is that right, Mr. Eason?

15 MR. EASON: Absolutely.

16 MR. DAVIE: Okay. Just checking.

17 But it also comes with a whole lot
18 of opportunity to make a difference in the 19 City of New York. And that's really at 20 the heart of why I take seriously this job
21 as chair of the CCRB.

22 But I think the greatest lesson
23 I've learned thus far is that it really is 24 a team effort and it involves everybody
25 here. The CCRB wouldn't have been able to accomplish the things that it did in 2018 without the tireless efforts of my colleagues on this board and all of you who are the agency staff and who actually do all of the work every day.

This year we passed a resolution that declared the CCRB's authority to investigate allegations of sexual misconduct. And investigators took on the work of training on that front so that we can better serve all New Yorkers. We engaged in a city-wide effort to ensure that residents of this city understand the Right to Know Act, a new law aimed at protecting the rights of civilians and ultimately moving us toward better police-community relations.

We delivered hundreds of presentations at schools, senior centers, libraries, and other locations going to all five boroughs so that more New Yorkers can understand how the CCRB can be a resource to them.

As I think about all that, I also

2 optimism we see in these young people; the 3 belief that they can make a difference;
4 that's what drives me. And I think it
5 drives all of us at here at the CCRB to do
6 all that we can, not only to hold police
7 accountable and to improve oversight of 8 the New York City Police Department --
9 civilian independent oversight but also to 10 improve community relations, to make this 11 city a safer and better place for 12 everyone.

13 Thank you and I'll now turn it to 14 our Executive Director, Mr. Darche.

15 MR. DARCHE: Thank you, Mr. Chair.

16 Fred very eloquently described
17 Monday's event. I just want to thank the 18 board for allowing me to participate. It
19 was an amazing event. It was an honor to 20 be a part of it.

21 I'm not going to go through the 22 list that Fred went through of all the 23 things we've done this year, but I want to 24 thank the staff for their hard work. And 25 let you all know that next year I expect the same because we have a lot more to do.

In February we are having the youth -- our Youth Summit as the chair said. We've actually set up a youth advisory council because we want this summit to be about youth, for youth, by youth so that we can really listen to members of the community who are sometimes the least heard but most affected by police.

We originally set out to have 15 members of the youth advisory council but we had such an overwhelming response, we've increased the number of members to 20. It will have young people ages 11 to 24 from all five boroughs. And we're looking forward to their insight in planning February's Youth Summit.

As many of you know, agency and NYPD disciplinary records are covered by 50 -- Civil Rights Law 50a. So when people speak in the public session right now we're going to ask that you not discuss individual incidents that might

Thank you, Mr. Chair.

MR. DAVIE: Thank you, Mr. Darche.

Let me ask the board members if they will introduce themselves and if they have any remarks we'll allow you to do them at this time.

We'll start with Mr. Siegal.

MR. SIEGAL: I'm John Siegal. I'm mayoral designee.

And Mr. Chair, I just thank you for your efforts over the last year in ministering to the agency and the staff in a way that I think has been very positive and effective for everyone.

MR. DAVIE: Thank you.

Rivadenevra. I am the Bronx City Council's designee to the board.

I also want to say thank you, Mr. Chair, for your leadership. I'm still not here a full year but it's been a very busy year. I also want to thank the staff for everything that they have done to support us. Thank you.

MR. EASON: Good evening, everyone. My name is Lindsay Eason. I am a police representative.

I would like to also acknowledge Chair Davie, Director Darche for the great job that they have done over the last year or so. I would also like to take this opportunity to acknowledge the great job that was done at the 25th anniversary to recognize the honorable Mayor Dinkins for getting this all started.

Chair Davie, Director Darche, Executive Assistant Jerika Richardson, and Director of Outreach Yojaira -- did I get it right -- and everyone else that was a part of making that program so successful.

1 Thank you.

2 MR. DAVIE: Thank you, Mr. Eason.

3 MR. PEGUERO: Good evening. My
4 name is Ramon Peguero. I'm the Queens
5 County designee by City Council.

7 I concur with what Chair Davie
8 said about the work that has been done. I
9 want to commend you, Mr. Chair, for your 10 leadership, for your ability to allow 11 every board member to have a voice, and 12 the confidence to speak on issues and 13 matters that effect the citizens of New 14 York.

15 And, Director Darche, thank you so
16 much for the stability and the growth that 17 you have brought to the CCRB. I believe
18 that your leadership has been uniquely
19 important in the growth and in the work
20 that we have done this year.

21 To the entire staff, thank you for 22 putting up with us, thank you for 23 informing us, and thank you for the 24 education that you give us every single 25 day. Thank you.

2 MR. DWYER: I'm Frank Dwyer. I'm
3 a police department representative.

4 I fear joining this because, Fred,
5 I'm beginning to feel like it's your 6 eulogy. But I honor your dignity and 7 grace. And thank you -- thank you for all
8 you do.

9 MR. DAVIE: I'm just glad
10 everybody got the memo.

11 Mr. Puma, would you like to say
12 hello and a few words.

13 MR. PUMA: Sure. I missed -- I
14 just came in so I wasn't sure if there was 15 any particular other points to cover in 16 the introduction.

17 MR. DAVIE: Not at all.

18 MR. PUMA: All right. So good
19 afternoon, everyone. I'm Joseph Puma.
20 I'm the Manhattan City Council designee on 21 the board. Actually, yesterday marked my 22 5th year since appointment to the board.

23 (Applause.)

24 MR. CARATERRA: Hi, everybody.
25 I'm Sal Caraterra. I'm a police

3 Fred, I got the memo so I --
4 actually, I do want to compliment Fred and 5 John and everyone that works -- this is 6 not an easy job. There's a lot of 7 different opinions. There's a lot of 8 debate and it goes back and forth.

9 And I have to tell you that we've
10 always had it but Fred and John bring a 11 nice balance to the table. Gentleman to 12 deal with, open, and very professional.

13 And as Joe, who just got here --
14 I'm here about three and a half. Joe Puma
15 -- and I'll talk to one board member -- is 16 like Fred and is like John in that also 17 probably -- don't take this the wrong way
18 -- probably -- Joe is probably one of the 19 hardest board members working on this 20 board, the most prepared always, and just 21 a good guy to run things off. Thank you,
22 everybody.

23 MR. DAVIE: Thank you.

24 MR. PUMA: Thank you, Sal, for a
25 wonderful compliment.

2 MR. EASON: Mr. Chair, I'd like to
3 have a do-over. In my acknowledgment I
4 omitted agency counsel Matthew Kadushin
5 that was there Monday also. And to 6 acknowledge all of those that make CCRB
7 possible, the staff. Thank you very much
8 for what you do and how you do it.

9 MR. DAVIE: Here, here.

10 And just let me say, it's been a
11 joy to work with all of you and 12 particularly to work very closely, almost 13 on a daily basis, with John and Jerika and 14 Matt. They're quite the trio and I hope
15 we've made a fairly decent foursome. It's 16 been a lot of fun and, I think, hopefully
17 it's been somewhat productive.

18 And, again, to the board and to 19 all of you, it's just really a privilege
20 to do this work. Thank you.

21 MR. DARCHE: One thing I forgot to 22 mention during my report was the date of 23 Youth Summit, which is February 26th.

24 I see a lot of young people out
25 there in the audience today. And I'd like
