ADVISORY: Civilian Complaint Review Board to Hold Community Board Meeting in Queens

New York, NY – The Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) will hold its monthly Board meeting at Saint Clare Catholic Academy in Rosedale on Wednesday, November 14, 2018 at 6:30 p.m.

Community members, advocates, the Board, and commanding officers from area precincts will be present to discuss police-community relations in Queens. During this first meeting since the Right to Know Act took effect, the Board will address the new law and the impact its implementation will have on police-civilian interactions and Agency operations.

The CCRB welcomes all New Yorkers to share their experiences with police-community relations. Agency investigators will be present to receive complaints of police misconduct.

###

The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) is the largest police oversight entity in the nation and is empowered to investigate, mediate, prosecute, and recommend disciplinary action for complaints alleging misconduct by NYPD officers. See NYC Charter § 440(c)(1). The agency's jurisdiction includes excessive and unnecessary force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and use of offensive language. To further this mission, CCRB issues monthly, biannual, and special statistical and qualitative reports analyzing trends and recurring issues arising from the many thousands of civilian complaints it receives each year.
