CCRB To Hold Public Board Meeting

New York, NY – The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) will hold its monthly Board meeting online on Wednesday, December 9 at 4:00 p.m. However, this meeting will no longer be dedicated to receiving public comment on the CCRB’s new rules. The public comment hearing has been postponed until Wednesday, January 13, 2021.

In lieu of the public comment hearing on the CCRB’s proposed rules, the agency encourages all New Yorkers to attend and share their experiences with policing and police-community relations, and to learn about civilian oversight of the NYPD. All participants, including members of the media, must register for this event through Webex.

- WHO: Civilian Complaint Review Board
- WHAT: Public Board Meeting on Police-Community Relations
- WHEN: December 9, 2020; 4:00 p.m.
- WHERE: Registrants will receive a link and password for the event. Register through Webex

For more information, visit nyc.gov/ccrb. Speaking at the Board meeting is open to all. If you have questions about speaking, requests regarding accessibility or need language interpretation assistance, please email accessibility@ccrb.nyc.gov. Interpretation services are free upon request.

###

The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) is the largest police oversight entity in the nation and is empowered to investigate, mediate, prosecute, and recommend disciplinary action for complaints alleging misconduct by NYPD officers. See NYC Charter § 440(c)(1). The agency's jurisdiction includes excessive and unnecessary force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and use of offensive language. To further this mission, CCRB issues monthly, biannual, and special statistical and qualitative reports analyzing trends and recurring issues arising from the many thousands of civilian complaints it receives each year.
