CCRB Chair Fred Davie on Attorney General's Report

New York, NY – New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) Chair Fred Davie issued the following statement on Wednesday in response to the Attorney General's preliminary report and recommendations for police reform:

“The CCRB welcomes the Attorney General's proposals to strengthen police oversight in New York City and looks forward to continued work with all likeminded parties dedicated to an effective and just disciplinary system that ensures accountability whenever police misconduct occurs.”

The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) is the largest police oversight entity in the nation and is empowered to investigate, mediate, prosecute, and recommend disciplinary action for complaints alleging misconduct by NYPD officers. See NYC Charter § 440(c)(1). The agency's jurisdiction includes excessive and unnecessary force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and use of offensive language. To further this mission, CCRB issues monthly, biannual, and special statistical and qualitative reports analyzing trends and recurring issues arising from the many thousands of civilian complaints it receives each year.
