CCRB to Update the Public on the Progress of the New Disciplinary Matrix

At today's monthly board meeting, the CCRB will provide details on the implementation and of the new NYPD Disciplinary Matrix.

New York, NY – Today, the New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) will provide a progress report on the implementation of the NYPD Disciplinary Matrix.

In February 2021, the CCRB and the NYPD signed an agreement on how to implement the NYPD's new Disciplinary Matrix in order to increase NYPD's concurrence with CCRB recommendations and consistency in CCRB's disciplinary recommendations. Today, the CCRB will update the public on how they implemented the Matrix, what progress it has yielded and how teams will continue to monitor its progress.

The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) is the largest police oversight entity in the nation and is empowered to investigate, mediate, prosecute, and recommend disciplinary action for complaints alleging misconduct by NYPD officers. See NYC Charter § 440(c)(1). The agency's jurisdiction includes excessive and unnecessary force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and use of offensive language. To further this mission, CCRB issues monthly, biannual, and special statistical and qualitative reports analyzing trends and recurring issues arising from the many thousands of civilian complaints it receives each year.
