Sherene Crawford joins the board with decades of experience in justice reform, prosecution, and policy. Ms. Crawford is the Chief of Staff at the Center for Justice Innovation, a nonprofit that works with communities and justice systems to advance equity, increase safety, and help individuals and communities thrive. Previously, Ms. Crawford served as Executive Assistant District Attorney and Division Chief of the Pathways to Public Safety Division at the Manhattan DA's Office, where she established a framework for reviewing felony cases for alternatives to incarceration. Ms. Crawford led prevention, intervention, and re-entry initiatives while overseeing lawyers and staff. Ms. Crawford also served as an Assistant District Attorney in specialized units, including Cybercrimes and Domestic Violence. Ms. Crawford's career spans leadership roles at the Center for Court Innovation, John Jay College's National Network for Safe Communities, and the NYC Mayor's Office to Combat Domestic Violence.

"Public safety and justice are the prerequisites to prosperity, and the CCRB plays a vital role in ensuring we have a safer, more just city," said New York City Mayor Eric Adams. "Sherene Crawford has spent decades serving this city and has developed numerous innovative justice reform initiatives. With this appointment, I am confident the CCRB will be able to continue serving New Yorkers every single day."

"The CCRB warmly welcomes Sherene Crawford to the Board," said Interim Chair Dr. Mohammad Khalid "I am confident Ms. Crawford's extensive experience in the legal and policy fields will prove invaluable to the Board and the CCRB's overall goal of thorough and independent oversight."
