MAYOR ADAMS NAMES BOARD MEMBER
DR. MOHAMMAD KHALID
AS INTERIM CHAIR OF THE CCRB

NEW YORK – The Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) today announced that Dr. Mohammad Khalid has been named Interim Chair of the Board. Dr. Khalid will preside over the CCRB's January Board Meeting on Wednesday, January 8th 2024 at 4:00pm and deliver his first remarks as Interim Chair.

"Dr. Mohammad Khalid is a long-time community leader with a dedication to public safety," said New York City Mayor Eric Adams. "Through his decades of local civic engagement, including his leadership roles in organizations such as the Iron Hills Civic Association and the Pakistani Civic Association of Staten Island, and prior experience serving on the CCRB, Dr. Khalid is uniquely qualified to serve as Interim Chair and will bring a commitment to fairness and transparency to the Board during this critical time."

"I am honored to be appointed Interim Chair of the Civilian Complaint Review Board. I believe that civilian oversight of law enforcement plays an important role in ensuring public safety." said CCRB Interim Chair Dr. Mohammad Khalid. "I look forward to collaborating with my fellow board members as we work together to strengthen accountability and continue serving the people of New York. I am deeply grateful to Mayor Eric Adams for placing his trust in me with this important responsibility."

About Dr. Mohammad Khalid

Dr. Mohammad Khalid is a dedicated community leader who boasts decades of civic involvement and a distinguished career in dentistry. Born in Peshawar, Pakistan, Dr. Khalid immigrated to New York City in 1972 at the age of 23. Dr. Khalid's dental practice in Eltingville, Staten Island has been a steadfast neighborhood institution since 1977. Dr. Khalid's commitment to his community shows through his participation in numerous civic organizations, including the Association of Pakistani Physicians of North America, the Iron Hills Civic Association of Staten Island, and Community Board 2. Dr. Khalid was a founding member and currently serves as president of the Pakistani Civic Association of Staten Island. Dr. Khalid previously served on the Civilian Complaint Review Board from 2005-2014. Dr. Khalid holds a Bachelor of Dental Surgery from Khyber Medical College, a Doctor of Dental Surgery from New York University and a Diploma in Orthodontics from the State University of New York.

The New York City Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) is the largest police oversight entity in the nation and is empowered to investigate, mediate, prosecute, and recommend disciplinary action for complaints alleging misconduct by NYPD officers.

See NYC Charter § 440(c)(1). The agency's jurisdiction includes excessive and unnecessary force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and use of offensive language. To further this mission, CCRB issues monthly, biannual, and special statistical and qualitative reports analyzing trends and recurring issues arising from the many thousands of civilian complaints it receives each year.
