Case Summary

On July 24, 2023, § 87(2)(b) filed an online complaint on behalf of her son, § 87(2)(b)

On July 18, 2023, at approximately 6:20 p.m., § 87(2)(b) his girlfriend, § 87(2)(b) and an unknown individual were walking in the vicinity of East 144th Street and Willis Avenue in the Bronx. PO Peter Delohery of the 40th Precinct stopped the individual and frisked his pants' pocket (Allegations A and B: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated). § 87(2)(b) spat on PO Sinaka Javorovac of the 40th Precinct. PO Javorovac and PO Salvador Cornejo-Castillo, also of the 40th Precinct, took him to the ground and punched § 87(2)(b) several times before he was placed in handcuffs (Allegations C and D: Force, Within NYPD Guidelines). Sgt. Anthony Perlmutter of the 40th Precinct failed to provide his shield number to the unidentified individual (Allegation E: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated). § 87(2)(b) was arrested and transported to the 40th Precinct stationhouse for processing.

At approximately 7:30 p.m., outside of the stationhouse, § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b)'s father, allegedly asked PO Javorovac for his shield number and business card, which PO Javorovac allegedly failed to provide (Allegations F and G: Abuse of Authority, Unable to Determine). An unknown uniformed Black male officer also allegedly failed to provide his shield number and business card to § 87(2)(b) (Allegations H and I: Abuse of Authority, Officer Unidentified).

The investigation received surveillance footage from the interior of the 40th Precinct stationhouse.

The investigation received body-worn camera (BWC) footage from the following officers: PO Peter Delohery, PO Cornejo-Castillo, PO Ernst Celestin, Sgt. Anthony Perlmutter, PO Javorovac, PO Matthew Barlow, PO Kelvin Perez, Sgt. Mayky Santos, PO Bernardo McKenzie, PO Nicolas Roveto, PO Joseph Canale, PO Denis Rocha, PO Darwin Galaby, PO Ivan Cruz, PO Pharoah Rodriguez, PO Basim Gergis, PO Robert McIver, PO Dominique Williams, PO Kayfia Robinson, PO Darwin Dume, PO Mario Stout, PO Geovanni Varela, Lt. Julian Harris, and PO James Bartolotti [Board Review 27].

§ 87(2)(b) was arrested § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were not arrested or issued summonses.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: At East 144th Street and Willis Avenue, in the Bronx, Police Officer Peter Delohery stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: At East 144th Street and Willis Avenue, in the Bronx, Police Officer Peter Delohery frisked § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g).

BWC footage from PO Delohery [Board Review 06] captures the officer in the front passenger's seat. At 00:48, § 87(2)(b) is visible toward the right of the vehicle, walking in the same direction as the officers' vehicle. At 00:50, an unidentified black male wearing a ski mask is standing and facing the right side of the police vehicle. At 00:52, PO Delohery exits the vehicle and approaches this individual. At 00:56, as the individual walks toward PO Delohery, a bulge is visible in the right pants pocket. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) walk by the individual's left side. At 00:57, as PO

Delohery approaches the individual, § 87(2)(b) comes in between them, separating the individual from PO Delohery. At 01:00, the individual, with § 87(2)(b) still in between him and the officer, goes against a wall. At 01:01, as PO Delory says, "Stop," multiple times. He takes hold of the individual's arm. § 87(2)(b) yells, "He don't got anything. Stop touching him." At 01:03, PO Delohery grabs a rectangular object in the right-side pocket of the individual's sweatpants. At 01:09, as § 87(2)(b) comes closer to § 87(2)(b) and the individual, PO Cornejo-Castillo pushes § 87(2)(b) away.

Without contact information, the investigation was unable to reach the individual for a statement nor obtain the identity of the individual.

The investigation was unable to reach § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) for statements.

PO Delohery [Board Review 07] and his partners were driving northbound on Willis Avenue. PO Delohery was in the front passenger's seat. PO Delohery saw a group of about five to ten people traveling southbound. One of the individuals wore weather inappropriate clothing in July: a ski-mask, t-shirt, and sweatpants, which raised PO Delohery's suspicion. The individual's clothing was loose fitting. PO Delohery explained that people who participate in shootings often wear sweatsuits. In addition, PO Delohery explained, people who commit crimes often wear ski masks. PO Delohery did not recall how far the individual was from the officers' vehicle. PO Delohery's attention was drawn to the individual because of the large crowd walking toward a New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA) complex. PO Delohery saw a heavy object swinging in the individual's right pocket of an unspecified article of clothing. PO Delohery did not recall when he noticed the object, but he saw the object while he was in his vehicle. The group noticed the officers and began to spread out, changing their positions as they walked, which PO Delohery considered "another hiding behavior." The individual, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) grouped together. The individual went against the wall and tried to hide behind other people, appearing as though he was trying to conceal himself and the heavy object from the officers' view. The individual, at an unspecified point, continued to look over at the officers' vehicle. PO Delohery did not recall whether the individual changed directions while walking.

When PO Delohery exited the vehicle to get a better look at the group, the heavy object, from about eight feet away, resembled a firearm. The object was a heavily weighted "L" shaped object that swung in the individual's right pocket of an unspecified part of his clothing. PO Delohery was unable to describe the dimensions of the object. When PO Delohery approached the group, the individual bladed his body away from PO Delohery. § 87(2)(b) attempted to get in between him and the individual. PO Delohery frisked the right pocket because the individual had an object in his pocket resembling a firearm, which the individual was trying to conceal. The object felt like a wallet or a phone.

PO Barlow's statement § 87(2)(g) PO Barlow was the operator of the vehicle. PO Delohery observed § 87(2)(b) that he wanted to stop based on his observations. PO Barlow did not recall what PO Delohery said. PO Barlow did not see the individual. PO Barlow made a U-turn, and as the officers got closer, PO Delohery pointed out the individual, who was wearing a ski mask and sweatpants, walking with three to four other people. PO Barlow did not see the pocket that PO Delohery frisked.

PO Cornejo-Castillo [Board Review 09] was sitting on the rear driver's side of the vehicle. PO Delory decided to stop § 87(2)(b) for an unknown reason. The individual was wearing a ski mask, a thick sweater, and sweatpants on a hot summer day. PO Cornejo-Castillo did not recall what was said about the individual before stopping him.

Stop, Question and Frisk, report § 87(2)(b) prepared by PO Delohery indicates that he and his partners were in uniform and driving northbound on Willis Avenue in an unmarked vehicle. The subject was observed standing on Willis Avenue with two other individuals. At the sight of the police, the group began to walk southbound on Willis Avenue. The subject then wore a black ski mask and began to turn his head over his shoulder to track the police vehicles. As the group traveled south on Willis Avenue, the subject positioned himself so that the other two individuals were between himself and the street. The subject also moved close to a wall to create more distance between himself and the officers. As the subject walked, a heavy object was observed swinging in his right pants pocket. When the officers approached, the subject began to backpedal [Board Review 13].

As established in People v. De Bour, 40 N.Y.2d 210, a seizure of a person for constitutional purposes is a significant interruption of an individual's liberty of movement and requires reasonable suspicion to believe the person is the suspect of a crime [Board Review 10].

In People v. Howard, 50 N.Y.2d 583, a defendant's "furtive" movements (repeated glances, change of direction, quickened pace) in response to an unmarked vehicle and plain clothed officers are ambiguous. Such circumstances would justify an inquiry and keeping the defendant under observation but are not a predicate for anything more as it is readily susceptible of an innocent interpretation [Board Review 11].

People v. Robinson, 125 A.D.2d 259, found that an officer, who has stopped a person based on a reasonable suspicion of criminality and has reason to believe they are dealing with an armed and dangerous individual, may conduct a protective search for weapons of that person. A reasonable intrusion is generally a pat down of the detained person's outer clothing to determine the existence of a weapon. Once the limited intrusion fails to reveal a weapon, the search must stop [Board Review 12].

BWC footage shows PO Delohery approaching the individual, whose right pants pocket is weighed down by an indiscernible object as he walks. The individual moves toward the wall when he is separated from the officer by § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) PO Delohery grabs a rectangular object in the right pants pocket. § 87(2)(b) It is therefore recommended that Allegations A and B be closed as Substantiated.

Allegation (C) Force: At East 144th Street and Willis Avenue, in the Bronx, Police Officer Sinaka Javorovac used physical force against § 87(2)(b)
Allegation (D) Force: At East 144th Street and Willis Avenue, in the Bronx, Police Officer Salvador Cornejo-Castillo used physical force against § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g) .

BWC footage from PO Javorovac [Board Review 14] shows the officer approaching the individual, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) At 01:03, Sgt. Anthony Perlmutter separates § 87(2)(b) from the individual and § 87(2)(b) At 01:07, § 87(2)(b) yells, "Don't touch me!" Don't touch me! Suck my dick!" At 01:10, § 87(2)(b) spits on PO Javorovac. At 01:15, PO Javorovac takes § 87(2)(b) to the ground. At 01:19, PO Javorovac's camera is obscured. At 01:21, the BWC falls to the ground and does not capture any visuals. At 01:41, a male voice is heard stating, "Get the fuck off me." Between 01:43 and 01:46, several individuals can be heard yelling at the officers. Once of the individuals, a male, can be heard saying, "Take your badge off multiple times." At 04:31, PO Javorovac picks up the camera off the ground. At 04:55, the officers entered their unmarked vehicle and the footage is terminated.

BWC footage from PO Cornejo-Castillo [Board Review 15] captures PO Cornejo-Castillo and PO Javorovac taking § 87(2)(b) to the ground. At 01:24, with PO Javorovac on top of § 87(2)(b) PO Javorovac yells at § 87(2)(b) multiple time to give him his hands. § 87(2)(b) does not comply with PO Cornejo-Castillo's instructions. At this point, PO Cornejo-Castillo delivers a closed fist to strike the top of § 87(2)(b) s head. In response, § 87(2)(b) tells him, "Suck my dick" and "Get the fuck off me." At 01:30, PO Javorovac and PO Cornejo-Castillo grab § 87(2)(b) s arms and tell him to give them his hands. § 87(2)(b) clenches his fists and tenses his arms. PO Cornejo-Castillo uses a closed fist to strike the left side of § 87(2)(b) s head while continuing to yell for § 87(2)(b) to give up his hands. At 01:33, PO Cornejo-Castillo strikes § 87(2)(b) s forehead. At 01:38, PO Cornejo-Castillo strikes the front of § 87(2)(b) s face with a downward fist. § 87(2)(b) yells, "Suck my dick" and "Get the fuck off me." At 01:50, PO Javorovac punches the top of § 87(2)(b) s head three times. § 87(2)(b) states, "Get the fuck off me!" At 01:55, PO Javorovac yells to the officer, "Guys, grab him." At 02:04, an officer attempts to place handcuffs on one of § 87(2)(b) s wrists, but he moves his hand away. At 02:06, PO Cornejo-Castillo yells, "Hands bro." Between 02:08 and 02:25, the footage is obscure due to what appears to be PO Cornejo-Castillo being too close to § 87(2)(b) At 02:27, § 87(2)(b) is on his stomach with two officers holding his hands behind his back. § 87(2)(b) refuses to allow the officers to place him in handcuffs by tensing his arms against his lower back. The officers tell him to let go his hands and he does. Once handcuffed, the officers walk § 87(2)(b) to a police van.

As discussed in allegations A and B, the investigation was unable to obtain a statement from § 87(2)(b)

PO Javorovac [Board Review 17] stated that § 87(2)(b) was issued multiple commands to move back. § 87(2)(b) clenched his fists and widened his arms. § 87(2)(b) spat on PO Javorovac, hitting his neck and face and leaving a saliva stain on his pants. PO Javorovac used a takedown on § 87(2)(b) by grabbing him by his shoulders and forcing him down. PO Javorovac mounted § 87(2)(b) by his hip area and leg area because § 87(2)(b) kicked PO Javorovac's testicles multiple times. PO Javorovac told § 87(2)(b) to give him his hands. § 87(2)(b) who was flat on the ground, clenched into a fetal position toward his waistband area, a position which indicated to PO Javorovac that § 87(2)(b) was concealing something. His hands were going closer to his abdomen. § 87(2)(b) tightened his arms. PO Javorovac grabbed both § 87(2)(b) s hands immediately. PO Javorovac deployed hand strikes with a closed fist to subdue § 87(2)(b) instructing § 87(2)(b) repeatedly to give him his hands. PO Javorovac aimed for § 87(2)(b) s arms but may have hit § 87(2)(b) in the head. PO Javorovac did not intend to hit § 87(2)(b) on the head.

PO Cornejo-Castillo [Board Review 09] and PO Javorovac executed a guided takedown of § 87(2)(b) s upper body to place him in handcuffs. § 87(2)(b) was initially on the side of his body when he was taken to the ground. § 87(2)(b) continued to resist after being ordered to place his hands behind his back. Officers utilized closed fist hand strikes to gain necessary compliance to get his hands behind his back. PO Cornejo-Castillo considered the strikes as the most effective means of gaining compliance to place § 87(2)(b) under arrest. PO Cornejo-Castillo struck him more than once in the head. PO Cornejo-Castillo punched § 87(2)(b) in the face because it would not be appropriate to punch him in the back of the head or in any other part of his body to gain compliance. After rolling § 87(2)(b) face down on the ground, PO Cornejo-Castillo stopped striking § 87(2)(b) but he continued resisting by not giving up his wrist to be handcuffed, pulling his hand back towards his body, kicking, and fighting the officer's attempts to do so. Both PO Cornejo-Castillo and PO Javorovac handcuffed § 87(2)(b)

Sgt. Perlmutter [Board Review 18] stated that PO Javorovac threw one or two hand strikes. Sgt. Perlmutter explained that hand strikes were necessary to gain compliance to get the person to give up their hands, especially with a large crowd of about ten to twelve people behind the officers. PO Javorovac told § 87(2)(b) repeatedly to give him his hands. § 87(2)(b) was on his back, with his hands close to his face. He was tightening and tensing his arms and refusing to put his arms behind his back. A large crowd formed and went behind the officers, who had to instruct people to step back.

Threat, Resistance, and Injury Report § 87(2)(b) [Board Review 29] prepared by Sgt. Perlmutter indicates that while the officers were conducting a lawful stop, § 87(2)(b) interfered with police action by placing his body in between officers and the individual who was being stopped. § 87(2)(b) s actions prevented the officers from performing their duties. Furthermore, while the officers were instructing § 87(2)(b) to disperse, he spat at officers where his saliva did contact an officer's body. The officers then proceeded to place the subject under arrest to which § 87(2)(b) began to intentionally push officers to flee police custody. The officers performed a guided takedown to subdue § 87(2)(b) While the officers were attempting to place him in handcuffs, § 87(2)(b) resisted arrest by stiffening his arms, flailing his arms, and grabbing onto the officers' hands and arms to avoid being placed under arrest. The officers used multiple hand strikes to gain compliance. As the officers were attempting to place him under arrest, a foldable knife fell from § 87(2)(b) s body. Once § 87(2)(b) was in handcuffs, he spat again in an officer's direction.

NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 221-01 [Board Review 09] provides members of service with guidelines on the use of force. In situations in which de-escalation techniques to gain voluntary compliance are not safe or appropriate, MOS will use only the reasonable force necessary to gain control or custody of a subject. In determining whether the use of force is reasonable, MOS should consider the following factors. These factors include, but are not limited to, the nature and severity of the circumstances, actions taken by the subject, duration of the action, immediacy of the perceived threat or harm to the subject, members of service and/or bystanders, whether the subject is actively resisting custody, whether the subject is attempting to evade arrest by flight.

BWC evidence shows that as the officers approached the unidentified male, § 87(2)(b) became aggressive towards the officers by yelling profanity, getting into a fighting stance and spitting at PO Javorovac. Once the officers tried to place him under arrest, § 87(2)(b) actively resisted arrest, by both failing to place his hands behind his back and by flailing his arms and tensing his body. While on the ground, multiple officers attempted to place his hands behind his back, but § 87(2)(b) refused to cooperate with their requests that he do so and continued to curse at the officers while tensing his body. § 87(2)(g) It is therefore recommended that Allegations C and D be closed as Within NYPD Guidelines.

Allegation (E) Abuse of Authority: At East 144th Street and Willis Avenue, in the Bronx, Sergeant Anthony Perlmutter refused to provide his shield number to § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g) .

BWC footage from Sgt. Perlmutter [Board Review 16] shows the unknown individual with his phone raised asking for Sgt. Perlmutter's shield number at 02:42. The individual comes within arm's reach of Sgt. Perlmutter. Sgt. Perlmutter pushes the individual back and does not state his shield number.

Sgt. Perlmutter [Board Review 18] stated § 87(2)(b) asked for his shield number. The scene was ongoing and hectic. Sgt. Perlmutter did not state his shield number because the officers were surrounded and there was no time to do so.

NYPD Administrative Guide 304-10 [Board Review 20] indicates that officers must clearly state their rank, name, shield number and command, or otherwise provide them, to anyone who requests that they do so.

NYC Administrative Code Section 14-174 [Board Review 28] indicates that, notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision B, an officer shall offer a business card to any person requesting identifying information, or provide his or her name, rank, shield number and command verbally to such person and allow such person sufficient time to record such information when such officer does not have an adequate number of pre-printed business cards or hand-written cards on his or her person at the time of such law enforcement activity § 87(2)(g) [redacted] It is therefore recommended that Allegation E be Substantiated.

Allegation (F) Abuse of Authority: In front of the 40th Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Sinaka Javorovac refused to provide his shield number to § 87(2)(b)
Allegation (G) Abuse of Authority: In front of the 40th Precinct stationhouse, Police Officer Sinaka Javorovac failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card.
Allegation (H) Abuse of Authority: In front of the 40th Precinct stationhouse, an officer refused to provide their shield number to § 87(2)(b)
Allegation (I) Abuse of Authority: In front of the 40th Precinct stationhouse, an officer failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card.
The investigation requested external and internal surveillance footage from the 40th Precinct stationhouse but only received internal footage.

§ 87(2)(b) [Board Review 21] arrived at the 40th Precinct stationhouse and stood by a barricade in front of the stationhouse. § 87(2)(b) spoke to PO Javorovac, who informed § 87(2)(b) that § 87(2)(b) spat on him. § 87(2)(b) asked PO Javorovac for his shield number and business card. PO Javorovac said, "No," to his request. § 87(2)(b) also asked an unidentified uniformed Black male officer, described as 5' 8" tall and weighing approximately 200 lbs. with short black hair, for his shield number and business card, which the officer did not provide.

§ 87(2)(b) [Board Review 22] was at the barricade with § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) asked PO Javorovac two to three times for his shield number. § 87(2)(b) was unaware of whether PO Javorovac provided his shield number to PO Javorovac.

PO Javorovac [Board Review 17] spoke to § 87(2)(b) who inquired about § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) did not ask for PO Javorovac's shield number and business card. PO Javorovac did not recall whether there was another officer with him.

The investigation contacted § 87(2)(b) who confirmed that he would be able to potentially identify the unknown Black male officer via photo array. The investigation then reviewed the Roll call for the 40th Precinct, Tour 2, and requested photographs of all the Black male officers present for duty. However, subsequent attempts to contact him to schedule the photo array were unsuccessful.

§ 87(2)(g) [redacted]

§ 87(2)(g) It is therefore recommended that Allegations F and G be closed as Unable to Determine.

§ 87(2)(g) . It is therefore recommended that Allegations H and I be closed as Officer Unidentified.

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- This is the first CCRB complaint to which § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) have been a party [Board Reviews 23, 24].
- § 87(2)(b) has been party to two CCRB complaints and has been named as a victim in one allegation [Board Review 25].
- PO Javorovac has been a member of service for four years and has been a subject in 11 CCRB complaints and 33 allegations, none of which were substantiated. § 87(2)(g) .
- PO Cornejo-Castillo has been a member of service for five years and has been a subject in four CCRB complaints and 12 allegations, of which one was substantiated:
  - Case 201908805 involved a substantiated allegation of Discourtesy. The Board recommended Command Level Instructions, and the NYPD imposed Instructions. § 87(2)(g) .
- Sgt. Perlmutter has been a member of service for seven years and has been a subject in 13 CCRB complaints and 52 allegations, of which eight were substantiated:
  - Case 201808753 involved a substantiated allegation of Discourtesy. The Board recommended Command Level Instructions, and the NYPD imposed Instructions.
