POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTURE

Re: CCRB Case No. 202501142 (Incident Date: January 23, 2026) regarding Police Officer Jerry Brown, Tax No. 974766 (PODS Case No. C-038691), Police Officer Sharon Jimenez, Tax No. 970387 (PODS Case No. C-038692), Police Officer Anthony Salomone, Tax No. 972935 (PODS Case No. C-038693), and Police Officer Ruth Florville, Tax No. 970521 (PODS Case No. C-038694)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the recommendation of the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) regarding the disciplinary matter involving Police Officers Jerry Brown, Ruth Florville, Sharon Jimenez, and Anthony Salomone and has determined that no disciplinary action is warranted.

In this matter, officers responded to a 911 call for an Emotionally Disturbed Person (EDP) at a men's shelter. Upon their arrival, the officers observed the complainant behaving aggressively and exhibiting signs of someone experiencing a mental health crisis and detained him for safety concerns. Pursuant to New York Consolidated Laws, Mental Hygiene Law 9.41, "an officer may remove or direct the removal of such a person [who appears to be mentally ill or who is conducting themselves in a manner likely to cause harm to themselves or others] to an approved hospital."

According to Patrol Guide Procedure Section 221-13, "Mentally Ill or Emotionally Disturbed Persons," after an EDP has been restrained, the member of service is to remove property that is dangerous to life or will facilitate escape. Here, the frisk and search of this individual was necessary before his removal to the hospital.

Therefore, based on the foregoing, the Police Commissioner directs that Police Officer Jerry Brown, Police Officer Ruth Florville, Police Officer Sharon Jimenez, and Police Officer Anthony Salomone receive no disciplinary action for the alleged misconduct.

Sincerely,

Michael P. Baker
Assistant Chief
Commanding Officer
Police Commissioner's Office
