Dear [REDACTED]:

The Civilian Complaint Review Board has concluded its thorough investigation of the incident you were involved in. The staff of the CCRB recognizes the meaningful contribution you made by telling your story so this investigation could move forward. After reviewing all of the evidence gathered throughout the investigation, which includes your testimony, the Board of the CCRB has come to the findings (see below) of the allegations regarding this incident. There is an enclosed form that lists what each of the potential outcomes of an investigation is, and explains what each outcome means.

In your case, the investigation determined that at least one of the allegations that occurred was misconduct (substantiated). Under New York City law, all of the allegations in this case will be forwarded to the Police Commissioner, who has the authority to actually impose discipline against an officer; the CCRB can only make recommendations regarding discipline.

Please be aware that in certain cases police officers are entitled by law to an administrative hearing before the Department can impose disciplinary penalties; in such case any civilian involved in an incident may be asked to testify at an administrative proceeding.

Allegation(s) by letter:

Board Finding(s):

A) Abuse of Authority:
Police Officer [REDACTED] did not process
[REDACTED]'s complaint regarding an officer.

Substantiated (Charges)

Officer Penalty Recommendations:

The Board's penalty recommendation takes into account all of the allegations substantiated against the officer, as well as the officer's disciplinary history.

Substantiated (Charges)

If you have any questions about the current status of your case at the Police Department, please contact the CCRB at (212) 912-7235.

The integrity and quality of the Police Department's service to the public depends, in large part, upon receiving information from citizens like you regarding the performance of police officers as they carry out their duties. The Civilian Complaint Review Board is grateful for the effort you put forth and your willingness to participate in this extremely important process.

Sincerely,
