Executive Summary

The Civilian Complaint Review Board (“CCRB”) is an independent municipal Agency that investigates complaints of NYPD misconduct. Every month, the CCRB prepares an Executive Director report for its public meeting. Data for September 2023 included the following highlights:

- 1) Of the cases in the CCRB active investigations docket, 54% have been open for 4 months or fewer, and 72% have been open for 7 months or fewer (page 10). In September, the CCRB opened 438 new cases (page 4), and currently has a total open docket of 4,012 cases (page 11).
- 2) The CCRB substantiated allegations in 31% of its fully investigated cases in September (page 17).
- 3) The CCRB fully investigated 45% of the cases it closed in September (page 14) and resolved (fully investigated, mediated or attempted mediation) 47% of the cases it closed (page 18). The Agency closed 41% of the cases as unable to investigate/withdrawn (page 14).
- 4) For September, investigations using video evidence resulted in substantiated allegations in 33% of cases - compared to 0% of cases in which video was not available (page 23).
- 5) The Monthly Report includes a breakdown of complaints and substantiations by NYPD precinct and borough of occurrence (pages 5-6, 25-28).
- 6) In September the Police Commissioner finalized 8 decision(s) against police officers in Administrative Prosecution Unit (APU) cases; 4 were guilty verdicts won by the APU (page 34). The CCRB's APU prosecutes the most serious allegations of misconduct. The APU conducted 22 trials against members of the NYPD year-to-date; 2 trials were conducted against respondent officers in September.

The CCRB is committed to producing monthly reports that are valuable to the public, and welcomes feedback on how to make its data more accessible.

Glossary

In this glossary we have included a list of terms that regularly appear in our reports.

Allegation: An allegation is a specific act of misconduct. The same “complaint” can have multiple allegations – excessive force and discourteous language, for example. Each allegation is reviewed separately during an investigation.

APU: The Administrative Prosecution Unit is the division of the CCRB that has prosecuted “charges” cases since April 2013, after the signing of a 2012 Memorandum of Understanding between the CCRB and NYPD.

Board Panel: The “Board” of the CCRB has 15 members. Following a completed investigation by the CCRB staff, three Board members, sitting as a Board Panel, will make a finding on whether misconduct occurred and will make a recommendation on what level of penalty should follow.

Case/Complaint: For the purposes of CCRB data, a “case” or “complaint” is defined as any incident within the Agency’s jurisdiction, brought to resolution by the CCRB.

Disposition: The Board’s finding as to the outcome of a case (i.e. if misconduct occurred).

FADO: Under the City Charter, the CCRB has jurisdiction to investigate the following categories of police misconduct: Force, Abuse of Authority, Discourtesy and Offensive Language, collectively known as “FADO”.

FADO&U: A ballot measure revising the New York City Charter, which passed on November 5, 2019, authorized the CCRB to investigate the truthfulness of an official statement made by a subject officer during a CCRB investigation into a FADO allegation. This expanded jurisdiction—Force, Abuse of Authority, Discourtesy, Offensive Language, and Untruthful Statements (FADO&U)—went into effect on March 31, 2020.

Intake: CCRB’s intake team initially handles complaints from the public. Intake takes complaints that come via live phone calls, voicemails, an online complaint form, or in-person.

Investigation: CCRB investigators gather evidence and interview witnesses to prepare reports on misconduct allegations. An investigation ends when a closing report is prepared detailing the evidence and legal analysis, and the case is given to the Board for disposition.

Mediation: A complainant may mediate his or her case with the subject officer, in lieu of an investigation, with the CCRB providing a neutral, third-party mediator.

Unable to Investigate / Withdrawn: When the CCRB is unable to obtain a sworn statement from the complainant/alleged victim, the case is closed as unable to investigate. When the complainant/alleged victim asks that their complaint be withdrawn, the case is closed as withdrawn.

Closed Pending Litigation: Sometimes when a complainant is involved in criminal or civil litigation, their attorney advises against making sworn statements until the conclusion of the court case. When a complainant declines to cooperate with an investigation on the advice of their attorney, the complaint disposition is “Closed Pending Litigation.”

Complaints Received

The CCRB's Intake team processes misconduct complaints from the public and referrals from the NYPD. Under the New York City Charter, the CCRB's jurisdiction is limited to allegations of misconduct related to Force, Abuse of Authority, Discourtesy and Offensive Language. All other complaints are referred to the appropriate agency. Figure 1 refers to all complaints that the CCRB receives and Figures 2 and 3 refer to new cases that remain with the Agency. In September 2023, the CCRB initiated 438 new complaints.

Body Worn Camera Footage Requests

Since the widespread roll out of body worn cameras in 2018, the collection of footage from these cameras has become an integral part of CCRB investigations.

The timeliness of the response to BWC footage requests has a direct impact on the length of time it takes to complete an investigation. The longer it takes to fulfill BWC requests, the longer CCRB investigations remain on the open docket.

Closed Cases

Resolving Cases

In September 2023, the CCRB fully investigated 45% of the cases it closed, and resolved (fully investigated, mediated or mediation attempted) 47% of the cases it closed.

Dispositions

Cases fully investigated by the CCRB generally receive one of five outcomes:

- If the alleged misconduct is found to have occurred, based on the preponderance of the evidence, the allegation is closed as substantiated.
- If there is not enough evidence to determine whether or not the alleged misconduct occurred, the allegation is closed as unable to determine.*
- If the preponderance of the evidence suggests that the event or alleged act did not occur, the allegation is closed as unfounded.
- If the event did occur, but was not improper by a preponderance of evidence, the allegation is closed as within NYPD guidelines.**
- If the CCRB was unable to identify any of the officers accused of misconduct, the case is closed as officer unidentified.

Additionally, a case might be mediated, with the subject officer and complainant discussing the incident in the presence of a neutral third-party moderator, or closed as mediation attempted, the designation for a case in which both the officer and the civilian agree to mediate, but the civilian fails to appear twice for the scheduled mediation session or fails to respond to attempts to schedule a mediation session. Finally, a case that cannot be fully investigated because the CCRB was unable to obtain a sworn statement from the complainant/victim is closed as unable to investigate.

Case Abstracts

The following case abstracts are taken from complaints closed this month and serve as examples of what the different CCRB dispositions mean in practice:

1. Substantiated

An individual was riding his e-bike when he saw the subject officer blocking a roadway. The individual stopped his bike and asked the subject officer why the road was blocked. The individual and the subject officer got into an argument and the individual took out his cellphone to record the interaction. As soon as he did, the subject officer pulled out his flashlight and shone it on the individual's cellphone. The incident was captured on BWC. The individual standing in front of the subject officer and they are arguing. The individual pulled out his cellphone and held it close to his body and tapped the screen to record the subject officer. In response, the subject officer turned on his flashlight and aimed it at the individual's cellphone. The light is focused squarely on the individual's cellphone only. When the individual put his cellphone down, the subject officer faced the flashlight down away from the individual's cellphone. The subject officer at his interview admitted that he used his flashlight because the individual had flashed a light at him and not to interfere with the individual recording their interaction. The BWC showed that the individual did not shine a light at the subject officer – such action served no legitimate law enforcement purpose. The Board substantiated the Abuse of Authority allegation.

2. Unable to Determine

An individual came down to the scene of a vehicular collision between her son and another individual. The subject officer and another officer were already at the scene of the collision. The individual's son stated that the subject officer told his mother to "mind your business, you stupid bitch" and "shut the fuck up." The subject officer stated that they did not recall seeing the individual's mother at the scene and denied speaking discourtesy or using offensive language to any female individual. The subject officer's partner stated that they did not hear the subject officer make discourteous or offensive statements. Both officers stated that the individual's son had been aggressive during the entire encounter. The other individual involved in the collision did not speak English and could not understand what was said between the individual's son and the subject officer. Without the testimony of the individual the investigation could not determine whether the subject officer made the statements. The Board closed the Discourtesy and Offensive Language allegations as Unable to Determine.

3. Unfounded

An individual saw multiple officers including the subject officer surrounding a male individual who was seated on a bench near a basketball court. Paramedics arrived and the individual approached the subject officer and asked what was going on. The subject officer allegedly responded, “mind your fucking business. Get the fuck out of here.” The incident was captured on BWC. The individual approached the officers and asked what was going on and the subject officer responded, “Nothing. Step back. Don’t worry about it, step back.” No other officer present used profanity towards the individual. The Board closed the Discourtesy allegation as Unfounded.

4. Within NYPD Guidelines

An individual went to a precinct stationhouse to retrieve his property when he was told he was under arrest. He was escorted to a holding cell when the subject officer stopped him and told him not to enter the cell. The individual continued walking into the cell and the subject officer grabbed onto the individual. The individual refused to stop walking and told the subject officer that he was going to go into the cell. The subject officer pushed the individual in his chest to make him sit down in a nearby chair. The incident was captured on the stationhouse cameras. It showed the subject officer pointing to a chair for the individual to sit in, a chair that the individual had previously sat in. The individual refused to move to sit in the chair. The subject officer approached the individual and used his hand to hold onto the individual’s shirt sleeve and guided him back to the chair. Once the individual was in front of the chair, the subject officer used both of his hands to guide the individual to sit down in the chair. The investigation found that the minimal use of force to guide the individual back to the chair was the minimum necessary to get the individual to comply with the directive to retake his seat. The Board closed the Use of Force allegation as being Within NYPD Guidelines.

5. Officer Unidentified

An individual stated that she was waiting to cross a street when she heard a uniformed officer in an unmarked vehicle shout at a motorist at the intersection “you fucking cunt.” The individual was able to give a physical description of the officer. She was able to identify the color and vehicle type that the officer was in. The investigation found that the incident location occurred on a border area shared by four different precincts and vehicle searches were not successful in pinning down a specific vehicle that matched the individual’s general description of the vehicle. Without additional pertinent information, the investigation could not identify a subject officer. The Board closed the Discourtesy and Offensive Language allegations as Officer Unidentified.

* Unable to determine is reported to the Commissioner as Unsubstantiated, meaning that there was insufficient evidence to establish whether or not there was an act of misconduct.

** Within NYPD Guidelines is reported to the Commissioner as Exonerated, meaning there was a preponderance of the evidence that the acts alleged occurred but did not constitute misconduct.

Dispositions - Allegations

“Allegations” are different than “cases.” A case or complaint is based on an incident and may contain one or more allegations of police misconduct. The allegation substantiation rate is 13% for the month of September 2023, and the allegation substantiation rate is 15% year-to-date.

Dispositions - Untruthful Statement Allegations

Following the 2019 passage of Ballot Question #2 and the subsequent City Charter Revision, CCRB's jurisdiction was expanded to include untruthful material statements made by police officers. As a result, CCRB added a new "Untruthful Statement" category of allegations.

There are four specific allegations in the new "Untruthful Statement" category: 1) False official statement, 2) Misleading official statement, 3) Inaccurate official statement and 4) Impeding an investigation.

Substantiation Rates

The September 2023 case substantiation rate was 31%.

* A substantiated complaint may contain a number of substantiated allegations with different dispositions. To determine the disposition associated with the complaint as a whole, the CCRB uses the most severe of the substantiated allegation dispositions. The order of severity is: 1) Charges 2) Command Discipline B 3) Command Discipline A 4) Formalized Training.

Substantiation Rates and Video

In general, investigations relying on video evidence result in much higher substantiation rates.

Board Discipline Recommendations for Substantiated Officers

After a CCRB investigative team has completed its investigation, a panel of Board members determines whether to substantiate the allegation(s) and make a disciplinary recommendation against the officer(s).

- “Charges and Specifications” are the most severe form of discipline. A decision to assign Charges commences a process that may result in an administrative trial in the NYPD Trial Room. An officer may lose vacation days, be suspended, or be terminated if the officer is found guilty.
- “Command Discipline B” and “Command Discipline A” are recommended for misconduct that is moderately serious. An officer can lose up to ten vacation days as a result of Command Discipline B and up to five vacation days as a result of Command Discipline A.
- “Formalized Training” are the least severe discipline, often recommended for officers who misunderstand a policy. This determination results in training at the Police Academy or NYPD Legal Bureau (Formalized Training).
- When the Board has recommended Formalized Training or Command Discipline, the case is sent to the NYPD Commissioner to impose training and/or other penalties. Cases where the Board recommends charges are prosecuted by the CCRB’s Administrative Prosecution Unit.

* The Board issues a separate Board Discipline Recommendation for each officer in a complaint against whom an allegation is substantiated.

Prior to the CCRB's adoption of the NYPD's Disciplinary Matrix on 03/15/2021, the Board Discipline Recommendation for each officer was determined by the most severe disposition of the allegation(s) substantiated against the officer, with the order of severity as follows: 1. Charges 2. Command Discipline B 3. Command Discipline A 4. Formalized Training 5. Instructions. With the adoption of the NYPD Disciplinary Matrix on 03/15/2021, the CCRB no longer issues Instructions as a Board Discipline Recommendation.

Following the adoption of the NYPD Disciplinary Matrix on 03/15/2021, the Board Discipline Recommendation for each officer is determined by the sum of the Matrix penalty days associated with the allegation(s) substantiated against the officer as follows: 1. Charges (penalty days  $\geq 11$ ) 2. Command Discipline B ( $6 \leq$  penalty days  $\leq 10$ ) 3. Command Discipline A ( $1 \leq$  penalty days  $\leq 5$ ) 4. Formalized Training ( $0 <$  penalty days  $< 1$ )

Unable to Investigate and Withdrawn Complaints

When the CCRB is unable to obtain a sworn statement from the complainant/alleged victim, the case is closed as unable to investigate. When the complainant/alleged victim asks that their complaint be withdrawn, the case is closed as withdrawn.

Complaints Against Officers Assigned to Police Service Areas

The Police Service Areas (PSA) are commands that police New York City Housing Developments throughout the five boroughs. PSA complaints are defined as complaints that contain at least one FADO allegation against an officer assigned to a PSA command.

	Sep 2022	Sep 2023	YTD 2022	YTD 2023

PSA Complaints as % of Total	8.0%	4.7%	6.1%	4.5%

A single PSA complaint may contain allegations against multiple officers assigned to multiple PSA commands. The following table breaks out the different PSAs and shows the number of officers assigned to each PSA against whom FADO allegations have been made.

Mediation Unit

Whenever mediation between a complainant/alleged victim and subject officer is suitable, it is offered by CCRB investigators. If the complainant/alleged victim and subject officer both agree to participate, a neutral, third-party mediator facilitates a conversation between the parties. The chart below indicates the number of mediations in September and this year.

Administrative Prosecution Unit

The CCRB's Administrative Prosecution Unit (APU) prosecutes police misconduct cases when the Board has recommended charges, in the NYPD Trial Room. The APU is also able to offer pleas to officers who admit guilt rather than going to trial. Following a plea agreement or the conclusion of a disciplinary trial, cases are sent to the Police Commissioner for final penalties.

*Retained cases are those in which the Department kept jurisdiction pursuant to Section 2 of the April 2, 2012 Memorandum of Understanding between the NYPD and the CCRB. ** When the Department keeps jurisdiction pursuant to Section 2 and does not impose any discipline on the officer, it is the equivalent of a category referred to as "Department Unable to Prosecute" (DUP). Cases are referred to as DUP when the department decides that it will not discipline an officer against whom the Board recommended discipline other than charges. *** In some cases, the Department conducts its own investigation and prosecution prior to the completion of the CCRB's investigation. In those cases, the APU does not conduct a second prosecution. † Under the Board's reconsideration process, an officer who has charges recommended as the penalty for a substantiated allegation may have the recommended penalty changed to something other than charges or have the disposition changed to something other than substantiated. In those cases, the APU ceases its prosecution.

NYPD Discipline

Under the New York City Charter, the Police Commissioner makes the final decision regarding discipline and the outcome of disciplinary trials. When the Police Commissioner issues the discipline recommended by the CCRB, we report it as discipline concurrence.

Discipline Report Year	Non APU %	APU %	Total %
2021	77.21	25.00	70.96
2022	41.50	36.73	41.19
2023 YTD	50.53	61.05	52.04

The remaining charts in this section provide additional detail regarding NYPD-imposed discipline, both for cases brought by the APU (Charges) and for Non-APU cases referred to the Police Commissioner with a recommendation of Command Discipline or Formalized Training.

*Where the respondent is found guilty of charges, and the penalty imposed would fall into more than one of the above listed categories, it is reported under the more severe penalty.

** Formalized training is conducted by the Police Academy, the NYPD Legal Bureau, or other NYPD Unit.

† Trial outcomes in non-APU cases typically involve MOS who turned down command discipline, prompting the police department to proceed with charges.

†† "Closed Administratively" is a term typically used by the police department to report on an incident of misconduct that has been previously adjudicated by the department itself prior to the receipt of a disciplinary recommendation from the CCRB.

††† When the department decides that it will not discipline an officer against whom the Board recommended discipline other than charges, those cases are referred to as "Department Unable to Prosecute," or DUP.
