ADMINISTRATIVE PROSECUTION UNIT BACKGROUND

When the Board substantiates a misconduct allegation and recommends Charges and Specifications, in most instances the case is prosecuted by the CCRB's Administrative Prosecution Unit (APU) pursuant to a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the CCRB and the NYPD.

The APU prosecutes cases before the NYPD Deputy Commissioner of Trials (DCT) or an Assistant Deputy Commissioner of Trials (ADCT). The member of service (MOS) can accept a plea offer in lieu of a trial. If the MOS goes to trial and is found guilty, the NYPD trial commissioner will recommend a penalty. The Police Commissioner may accept, reject, or modify any plea agreement, trial verdict, or penalty recommendation.

The APU treats each officer against whom an allegation is substantiated as a separate case. A single CCRB complaint may generate more than one APU case depending on the number of officers against whom the Board recommends Charges and Specifications.

INTRODUCTION

This report will address the following matters: (i) trial verdicts issued by an Assistant Deputy Commissioner of Trials ("ADCT"); (ii) the treatment of Administrative Prosecution Unit ("APU") pleas by the Police Commissioner ("PC"); (iii) the retention of cases under Provision Two of the April 2, 2012, Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU"); (iv) cases administratively closed by the Police Commissioner; (v) cases closed due to the statute of limitations ("SOL"); (vi) the size of the APU's docket; (vii) the time to serve Charges and Specifications on Respondents; and (viii) the discipline concurrence rate.

The report contains information concerning the following case closures in the fourth quarter of 2025: eleven (11) trial verdicts, ninety-eight (98) pleas, two (2) retained cases, seven (7) PC administratively closed cases, and two (2) APU administratively closed cases. Finally, it includes information regarding the discipline and concurrence rates for the quarter which stand at 92% and 86% respectively.

SECTION I: TRIALS

At the conclusion of an administrative trial, the presiding ADCT renders a finding of guilty or not guilty on each of the Charges and Specifications against the member(s) of service (“MOS”).<sup>1</sup> For guilty verdicts, the ADCT recommends a penalty for each member of service involved in the case and the Police Commissioner either approves, modifies, or reverses the verdict and recommended penalty.<sup>2</sup> There is no penalty recommendation for not guilty verdicts. In the fourth quarter of 2025, the verdicts for eleven (11) APU trials were finalized. The verdicts can be found below.

<sup>1</sup> The APU treats each officer against whom an allegation is substantiated as a separate “case.” As such, all APU data discussed in this report uses the same terminology. While there may be trials or incidents that involve multiple officers, the word “case” should be interpreted as “case against a single officer.”

<sup>2</sup> As the final arbiter of discipline, the Police Commissioner can modify the ADCT penalty and/or reverse a verdict.

SECTION II: PLEAS

In lieu of a trial, the MOS can reach a plea agreement with the APU. This agreement must be approved by both the ADCT and the Police Commissioner. The APU uses several factors to determine plea recommendations, including, but not limited to, MOS length of service, MOS rank, MOS disciplinary history, the facts of the case, the strength of the case, vulnerability of the victim, the extent of any injury, the number of complainants, precedent from cases involving analogous charges, and the delineated penalty categories from the New York City Police Department’s (“NYPD”) Disciplinary Matrix. In the fourth quarter of 2025, the APU finalized ninety-eight (98) plea agreements.

SECTION III: RETAINED CASES

The Police Commissioner can retain a case, which means that the case is removed from the APU, in accordance with Provision Two of the MOU,<sup>3</sup> which states that:

in those limited circumstances where the Police Commissioner determines that CCRB’s prosecution of Charges and Specifications in a substantiated case would be detrimental to the Police Department’s disciplinary process, the Police Commissioner shall so notify CCRB. Such instances shall be limited to such cases in which there are parallel or related criminal investigations, or when, in the case of an officer with no disciplinary history or prior substantiated CCRB complaints, based on such officer’s record and disciplinary history the interests of justice would not be served.

After a case is retained, the Police Commissioner can decide whether or not to impose discipline on an officer. In the fourth quarter of 2025, the Police Commissioner retained two (2) cases.

SECTION IV: POLICE COMMISSIONER ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSED CASES

The Police Commissioner will administratively close a case when an officer resigns, retires, or is disciplined by an internal NYPD process. Such cases require no further action from the APU. In the fourth quarter of 2025, the Police Commissioner administratively closed seven (7) cases.

SECTION V: APU ADMINISTRATIVELY CLOSED CASES

The SOL is the 18-month timeframe within which a disciplinary proceeding must commence against an officer.<sup>4</sup> Unless the case falls under the crime exception, once the SOL period elapses, a case may not proceed and will be closed without further action. In the fourth quarter of 2025, the APU administratively closed two (2) cases for SOL reasons.

| COMPLAINT                                      | OFFICER       | CCRB SUBSTANTIATED ALLEGATIONS                         | REASON FOR CASE CLOSURE |

<sup>4</sup> Under New York Civil Service Law § 75(4), a disciplinary proceeding cannot be commenced more than 18 months after the incident, but that time limitation does not apply where the alleged misconduct, as described in the Charges and Specifications, would constitute a crime.

The service of Charges and Specifications on a MOS is considered a commencement of a disciplinary proceeding.

SECTION VI: THE APU DOCKET

The APU's docket increased in the fourth quarter of 2025 compared to the third quarter of 2025. The sustained docket size is attributable to the increased number of Charges and Specifications recommended by the CCRB's Board pursuant to the Disciplinary Matrix and the overall increase in the number of complaints received by the Agency.

SECTION VIII: CONCURRENCE AND DISCIPLINE

The concurrence rate measures how often the Police Commissioner imposes the same (or more severe) discipline as recommended by the Board. The discipline rate measures how often the Police Commissioner imposes discipline of any kind. Certain “Not Adjudicated” case outcomes, such as when the officer left the force prior to discipline being imposed, do not factor into the concurrence or discipline rate.
