CITYWIDE EVENTS NEWSLETTER

August 2022

Volume 2 - Issue 8

Welcome Our New Executive Director ~ Dawn Tolson

It is with great honor and excitement that I re-join the Mayor's Office of Citywide Event Coordination and Management, as the Executive Director! In my previous role as Director of the Street Activity Permit Office, I forged many strong relationships and look forward to re-establishing those connections.

As Mayor Adams' administration leads with a bold vision for the future of New York City, CECM will play an integral role in realizing that vision. Along with our City Agency partners, private and public stakeholders, and the NYC event production community, we will continue to foster space for New Yorkers to come together and share in the magic of living in this great city!
