

Appendix C

Proposed Amendments

QUESTION 2

Section one. Chapter 8 of the New York city charter is amended by adding a new section 197-f to read as follows:

§ 197-f. Affordable housing fast track. a. No later than October 1, 2026, and every five years thereafter, the director of city planning shall determine and post on the website of the department a list of the twelve community districts which, during the preceding five years, had the lowest rate of affordable housing development, as measured by the total number of new affordable dwelling units in a community district as a percentage of the total number of housing units located in such community district at the start of each five-year cycle. The city planning commission shall, in consultation with the commissioner of housing preservation and development, develop a methodology to calculate the total number of affordable dwelling units in each community district, considering data that includes, but need not be limited to, the total number of affordable dwelling units for which the department of buildings has issued a permit for construction work and, where applicable, the date upon which an affordable housing unit becomes subject to a regulatory agreement or other similar instrument that provides for the creation of one or more affordable dwelling units. For the purposes of this section, the term “affordable dwelling unit” has the same meaning as set forth in subdivision a of section sixteen-a.

b. Applications by any person or agency for any changes, approvals, permits, or authorizations thereof, respecting the use, development or improvement of real property, that would otherwise be subject to review pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c, shall be instead reviewed pursuant to the expedited land use review procedure set forth in section one hundred ninety-seven-e, provided that:

1. Such real property is located in a community district that, on the date of the filing of such application, is included on the list posted by the director pursuant to subdivision a of this section;

2. Such real property is, or would be if such application is approved, subject to a program established in the zoning resolution that mandates that any new housing on designated lots include minimum percentages of permanently affordable housing equivalent to or exceeding the requirements under any mandatory inclusionary housing program;

3. Such application is filed between the first of January succeeding the posting of the list required by subdivision a of this section identifying the community district in which such real property is located and the thirty-first of December five years thereafter; and

4. The department of city planning certifies such application as complete on or before the thirty-first of December five years succeeding the posting of the list required by subdivision a of this section, provided that where such application is filed within two years of such date, such department shall certify such application as complete no later than two years after such application is filed.

c. The department of city planning and city planning commission, as applicable, shall make the determinations set forth in this subdivision regarding an application described in subdivision b of this section. 1. The department shall not certify an application as complete unless it confirms that a primary purpose of such application is to facilitate additional housing and affordable housing.

2. In determining, pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-e, whether to approve, approve with modifications, or disapprove an application described in subdivision b of this section, the city planning commission shall assess and make a finding regarding the consistency of such application with the fair housing plan submitted pursuant to subdivision b of section sixteen-a and the adequacy of existing transportation, sewer and other infrastructure.

d. The commission may promulgate rules as necessary for the implementation of this section, including, but not limited to, rules relating to the selection of data used to identify the number of affordable housing units in a community district, as set forth in subdivision a of this section.

§ 2. Chapter 8 of the New York city charter is amended by adding a new section 197-e to read as follows:

§ 197-e. Expedited land use review procedure. a. Notwithstanding subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c, applications by any person or agency for any changes, approvals, permits, or authorizations described in subdivision b of section one hundred ninety-seven-f that would otherwise be subject to review pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c, shall be reviewed pursuant to the expedited review procedure set forth in this section.

b. For any such application, the applicant shall file with the department of city planning the documents required for applications being reviewed under the uniform land use review procedure, as set forth in subdivision b of section one hundred ninety-seven-c. The department of city planning shall forward a copy of any materials it receives pursuant to this subdivision (whether or not such materials have been certified as complete) within five days to each affected borough president or community board.

c. The department of city planning shall be responsible for certifying that applications filed with such department pursuant to subdivision b of section one hundred ninety-seven-f are complete and ready to proceed through the expedited land use review procedure. The department shall not certify an application unless (1) each affected borough president and community board has received from the department, at least thirty days before certification, a pre-certification notice containing information specified by the city planning commission, which shall include the project location, the purpose of the proposed actions, and a description of the proposed actions, sufficient to put such borough president and community board on notice of the substance of the application, and (2) the application is substantially consistent with such notice. The department shall also publish such notice on the department's website within five days of such transmission. Upon certification of an application, the department shall give notice of such certification to the council.

d. 1. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph two of this subdivision, each affected community board shall, not later than sixty days after receipt of an application that has been certified pursuant to subdivision c of this section:

(a) notify the public of the application in a manner specified by the city planning commission pursuant to subdivision g of this section, and

(b) either (i) conduct a public hearing thereon and prepare and submit a written recommendation to the city planning commission, or (ii) where authorized by this charter, submit a written waiver of the right to conduct a public hearing and to submit such written recommendations to the commission.

2. Where an application has been certified during the month of June, the affected community board shall provide notification pursuant to subparagraph a of paragraph one of this subdivision and conduct a hearing or, where authorized, submit a waiver of the right to conduct a public hearing pursuant to subparagraph b of paragraph one of this subdivision not later than ninety days after receipt of such application or, where such application is certified during the period of time from and including July 1 to and including July 15, not later than seventy-five days after receipt of such application.

e. 1. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph two of this subdivision, each affected borough president shall, not later than sixty days after receipt of an application that has been certified pursuant to subdivision c of this section, submit a written recommendation or waiver thereof to the city planning commission.

2. Where an application has been certified during the month of June, the affected borough president shall submit such recommendation or waiver not later than ninety days after receipt of such application or, where such application is certified during the period of time from and including July 1 to and including July 15, not later than seventy-five days after receipt of such application.

f. Not later than thirty days after expiration of time allowed for the filing of a recommendation or waiver with the city planning commission by the affected community board and borough president, the commission shall conduct a public hearing on such application and approve, approve with modifications, or disapprove the application, provided, however, that where the department determines that an application is required by law to include an environmental impact statement, the commission shall approve, approve with modifications, or disapprove such application no later than forty-five days after such expiration of time. Any such approval or approval with modifications of the commission shall require the affirmative vote of at least seven of the members. Any action of the city planning commission which modifies or disapproves a written recommendation of the affected community board or borough president shall be accompanied by a written explanation of its reason for such action. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this chapter, the city planning commission shall not file an application reviewed pursuant to this section with the council, and such an application filed pursuant to this section shall not be subject to section one hundred ninety-seven-d.

g. The city planning commission shall establish rules providing (1) guidelines, minimum standards, and procedural requirements for community boards, borough presidents, and the commission in the exercise of their duties and responsibilities pursuant to this section, (2) minimum standards for certification of applications pursuant to subdivision b of this section, and (3) specific time periods for review of applications pursuant to this section prior to certification.

h. If a community board or borough president fails or waives its right to act within the time limits for review pursuant to subdivisions d or e of this section, the application shall be referred to the city planning commission. If the city planning commission fails to act on an application within the time limits specified in subdivision f of this section, the application shall be deemed to have been denied.

i. Notice of any hearing on an application by the city planning commission shall be published in the city record at least ten days immediately prior to the date of the hearing, and a copy of the notice shall be mailed to all community boards affected by the application.

§ 3. Subdivision b of section 197-d of the New York city charter, as added by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 7, 1989, is amended to read as follows:

b. [The] Except for decisions of the city planning commission to approve or approve with modifications applications reviewed pursuant to the expedited land use review procedure set forth in section one hundred ninety-seven-e, the following decisions filed with the council pursuant to subdivision a of this section, shall be subject to review and action by the council:

(1) any decision of the city planning commission to approve or approve with modifications a matter described in paragraph three or eight of subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c, a disposition of residential real property (as defined in this paragraph) pursuant to paragraph ten of subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c (except for dispositions to companies that have been organized exclusively to develop housing projects for persons of low income), a plan pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-a, or a change in the text of the zoning resolution pursuant to sections two hundred or two hundred one, except for a change to such text pursuant to paragraph four of subdivision a of section two hundred. For purposes of this section, residential real property shall mean real property improved by structures, whether or not occupied, built for or converted to a use which is primarily residential, but shall not include property subsequently converted to non-residential use;

(2) any other decision of the city planning commission to approve or approve with modifications a matter described in subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c, if (i) both an affected community board (after holding a public hearing) and the affected borough president, within the time periods allotted for their reviews pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c, have recommended in writing against approval and (ii) the affected borough president, within five days of receiving a copy of the decision of the commission, files with the commission and the council a written objection to the decision; and twenty days of the filing of such decision pursuant to subdivision a of this section, the council resolves by the majority vote of all the council members to review the decision of the commission.

§ 4. Subdivision b of section 197-e of the New York city charter, as added by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 4, 2025 upon approval of ballot question 3, shall be amended by adding a new paragraph 9 to read as follows:

9. An application that meets the criteria set forth in subdivision b of section one hundred ninety-seven-f.

§ 5. Subdivision g of section 197-e, as added by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 4, 2025 upon approval of ballot question 3, is amended to read as follows:

g. Not later than thirty days after expiration of time allowed for the filing of a recommendation or waiver with the city planning commission by the affected community board and borough president, the commission shall approve, approve with modifications, or disapprove the application, provided, however, that where the department determines that an application pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-f is required by law to include an environmental impact statement, the commission shall approve, approve with modifications, or disapprove such application no later than forty-five days after such expiration of time. Any such approval or approval with modifications of the commission shall require the affirmative vote of at least seven of the members. The commission shall conduct a public hearing on all applications that are subject to review and approval by the commission pursuant to this section. Prior to taking any action pursuant to this subdivision on a matter involving the siting of a capital project, the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition or acquisition of real property, the city planning commission may obtain a report from the office of management and budget or the department of citywide administrative services, as appropriate. Any action of the city planning commission which modifies or disapproves a written recommendation of a borough president or affected community board shall be accompanied by a written explanation of its reason for such action. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this chapter, the city planning commission shall not file an application reviewed pursuant to this section with the council, and such and such an application filed pursuant to this section shall not be subject to section one hundred ninety-seven-d, except as set forth in subdivision j of this section.

§ 6. Section 200 of the New York city charter, as amended by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 7, 1989, is amended to read as follows:

§ 200. Zoning Resolution. a. Except as provided in subdivision b, any existing resolution or regulation of the council, the board of estimate or of the city planning commission to regulate and limit the height and bulk of buildings, to regulate and determine the area of yards, courts and other open spaces, to regulate density of population or to regulate and restrict the locations of trades and industries and location of buildings designed for specific uses or creating districts for any such purpose, including any such regulation which provides that the board of standards and appeals may determine and vary the application of such resolutions or regulations in harmony with their general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules contained in such regulations, may be amended, repealed or added to only in the following manner:

1. The city planning commission may upon its own initiative at any time or upon application as provided in section two hundred one, adopt a resolution to amend the text of the zoning resolution subject to the limitations provided by law. Before adopting any such resolution, the commission shall notify any community board or borough board affected by the resolution and shall afford persons interested an opportunity to be heard at a time and place to be specified in a notice of hearing to be published in the City Record for the ten days of publication of the City Record immediately prior thereto setting forth in general terms the nature of the proposed resolution and a statement of the place at which the entire resolution may be examined.

2. Any resolution by the commission approving a change in the text of the zoning resolution shall be subject to review and approval by the council pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-d. Any resolution for a zoning text change which the mayor shall have certified to the council as necessary, and which has been disapproved by the commission, may be adopted by the council by a two-thirds vote and, after notice to the parties affected, a public hearing. The council shall act upon such resolution within fifty days of the filing of the certification of the mayor with the council, and such resolution shall become effective upon approval by the council.

3. In case a protest against such a resolution approved by the city planning commission shall have been presented to the city clerk within thirty days from the date of the filing of such resolution with the council, duly signed and acknowledged by the owners of twenty per cent or more of the area of:

- (1) the land included in changes proposed in such proposed resolution, or
- (2) the land immediately adjacent extending one hundred feet therefrom, or
- (3) the land, if any, directly opposite thereto extending one hundred feet from the street frontage of such opposite land, such resolution shall not be effective after the filing of such protest unless approved by the council by a three-fourths vote within one hundred eighty days after the filing of said resolution with the city clerk. The effective date of such resolution, if so approved, shall be the date of such approval. A protest duly filed as herein provided may be withdrawn at any time within sixty days from the date of the filing of such resolution.

4. Notwithstanding anything in this subdivision to the contrary, where a resolution that would apply to specified parcels of real property a program established in the zoning resolution that mandates that any new housing on designated lots include minimum percentages of permanently affordable housing equivalent to or exceeding the requirements under any mandatory inclusionary housing program is proposed in conjunction with an application that is reviewed under section one hundred ninety-seven-e, the adoption of such resolution shall be pursuant to the expedited land use review procedure set forth in section one hundred ninety-seven-e instead of the review procedure set forth in paragraphs one through three of this subdivision.

b. Designations of zoning districts under the zoning resolution and the issuance of special permits which under the terms of the zoning resolution are within the jurisdiction of the city planning commission shall be subject to review and approval pursuant to the procedures provided in section one hundred ninety-seven-c and section one hundred ninety-seven-d, except for applications to designate a zoning district under the zoning resolution reviewed in accordance with section one hundred ninety-seven-e, and except that whenever the city planning commission has not recommended approval of a proposed change in the designation of a zoning district or the issuance of a special permit under the zoning resolution or has failed to act on such a matter within the time specified in section one hundred ninety-seven-c, the council by a two-thirds vote may approve such change or the issuance of such permit only if the mayor shall have certified to the council that such change or issuance is necessary. The council shall act upon such designation or permit within fifty days of the filing of the certification of the mayor with the council.

§ 7. Subdivision a of section 201 of the New York city charter, as amended by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 7, 1989, is amended to read as follows:

a. Applications for changes in the zoning resolution may be filed by any taxpayer, community board, borough board, borough president, by the mayor or by the land use committee of the council if two-thirds of the members of the committee shall have voted to approve such filing with the city planning commission. All such applications involving changes in the designation of zoning districts under the zoning resolution shall be subject to review and approval pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c and one hundred ninety-seven-d, except as set forth in section one hundred ninety-seven-e. For applications involving other changes in zoning resolutions and regulations, the commission prior to taking action upon any such application shall refer it to the affected community boards or borough boards for a public hearing and recommendation, provided, however, that applications described in paragraph four of subdivision a of section two hundred, shall be referred to affected community board and the affected borough president in accordance with the expedited land use review procedure set forth in section one hundred ninety-seven-e.

§ 8. Subdivision d of section 215 of the New York city charter, as amended by a vote of electors at a general election held on November 5, 2024, is amended to read as follows:

d. In the preparation of the preliminary ten-year capital strategy, the department of city planning and office of management and budget shall consider: (i) the strategic policy statements of the mayor and the borough presidents pursuant to section seventeen, (ii) relevant citywide, borough and community plans adopted pursuant to section one hundred ninety seven-a, the fair housing plan submitted pursuant to subdivision b of section sixteen-a, and the list of twelve community districts published pursuant to subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-f, (iii) the reports pursuant to section two hundred fifty-seven comparing the most recent ten-year capital strategy with the capital budgets and programs adopted for the current and previous fiscal years, and (iv) the city's capital needs, as informed by the citywide statement of needs and the capital plant inventory required by sections two hundred four and one thousand one hundred ten-a, respectively, including but not limited to city facility and capital plant conditions and deterioration, geographic distribution, impact on agency function or mission, impact on resiliency, and relevant federal or state conditions or requirements.

§ 9. Subdivisions 9 and 10 of section 666 of the New York city charter, subdivision 9 as amended by local law number 82 for the year 2017, subdivision 10 as redesignated by local law number 49 for the year 1991, are amended to read as follows:

9. To afford an equal right to the city planning commission, community boards, and borough boards and lessees and tenants as well as owners to appear before it for the purpose of proposing arguments or submitting evidence in respect of any matter brought before it pursuant to the zoning resolution of the city of New York or section six hundred sixty-six-a. In rendering a final determination on any matter before it in which any such party has proposed relevant arguments or submitted relevant evidence, the board shall refer to such arguments or evidence in its final determination and describe the extent to which the board considered such arguments or evidence in reaching its final determination, to the extent applicable. The board may categorize similar comments together and respond to such categories, provided that each such categorical response indicates the testimony to which it is responding.

10. To issue such special permits as the board is authorized to issue under the zoning resolution or actions under section six hundred sixty-six-a.

§ 10. Chapter 27 of the New York city charter is amended by adding a new section 666-a to read as follows:

§ 666-a. Fast-track action for affordable housing projects. a. In accordance with this section, the board may modify the application or interpretation of any use, bulk, or parking regulation of the zoning resolution to a building to be developed, preserved, or converted, in whole or in part for affordable housing, as such term is defined in subdivision a of section sixteen-a, provided that the board makes the following findings:

1. The building is or will be owned, in whole or in part, by a company that has been organized exclusively to develop housing projects for persons of low income;

2. The building is wholly located in a zoning district that allows residential uses;

3. As determined in consultation with the commissioner of housing preservation and development, the building is consistent with applicable affordable housing design and development standards established by such commissioner and could not be developed, preserved or converted without modifying the application of any use, bulk, or parking regulations;

4. The building will not alter the essential character of the neighborhood; and

5. Under the conditions and safeguards imposed, the hazards or disadvantages to the community at large of such modifications at the particular site are outweighed by the advantages to be derived by the community and city from the grant of such modifications.

b. The decision of the board shall set forth each required finding in each specific approval of an action authorized pursuant to this section or which of the required findings have not been satisfied in each denial of such an action. Such decision shall, for any approval of an action pursuant to this section, set forth the evidence or other data supporting each finding by the board in reaching such decision. Reports of other city agencies made as a result of inquiry by the board may be considered by the board.

c. In granting a modification pursuant to this section, the board may prescribe such conditions or restrictions as it may deem necessary to minimize any adverse effects of such modifications on other property in the neighborhood and to ensure such affordable housing that is developed, preserved or converted is consistent with applicable design and development standards. Such conditions or restrictions shall be incorporated in the building permit and certificate of occupancy. Failure to comply with such conditions or restrictions shall constitute a violation of such permit or certificate of occupancy and may constitute the basis for denial or revocation of a building permit or certificate of occupancy and for all other applicable remedies.

§ 11. Section 668 of the New York city charter is amended by adding a new subdivision d-1 to read as follows:

d-1. Notwithstanding any provision in subdivision d of this section to the contrary, for applications filed pursuant to section six hundred sixty-six-a, the board of standards and appeals shall conduct the public hearing required pursuant to subdivision d of this section no later than thirty days after the expiration of the time allowed for the filing of a recommendation or waiver with the board by the affected community board or borough board, and the board shall give public notice not less than five days in advance of such hearing. The board shall take final action on the application no later than thirty days after the expiration of time allowed for such hearing, provided that where the board determines that an application does not satisfy the required findings, it may hold a second hearing and take final action on such application within sixty days of such determination.

§ 12. Subdivision e of section 668 of the New York city charter, as redesignated by local law 103 for the year 2017, is amended to read as follows:

e. Copies of a decision of the board of standards and appeals and copies of any recommendation of the affected community board or borough board shall be filed with the city planning commission and, for applications filed pursuant to section six-hundred sixty-six-a, with the commissioner of housing preservation and development. Copies of the decision shall also be filed with the affected community or borough boards.

§ 13. Subdivision h of section 668 of the New York city charter, as redesignated by local law 103 for the year 2017, is amended to read as follows:

h. The city planning commission shall be a party to any proceeding to determine and vary the application of the zoning. The commissioner of housing preservation and development shall also be a party to a proceeding to modify the zoning resolution pursuant to section six hundred sixty-six-a. The commission may appear and be heard on any application pursuant to this section before the board of standards and appeals if, in the judgment of the city planning commission, the granting of relief requested in such application would violate the requirements of the zoning resolution relating to the granting of variances. The commission and commissioner of housing preservation and development, as applicable, shall have standing to challenge the granting or denial of a variance or modification pursuant to section six hundred sixty-six-a in a proceeding brought pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, or in any similar proceeding.

p. (1) The amendments to the charter adding sections 197-e, 197-f, 666-a and subdivision d-1 of section 668, and amending subdivision b of section 197-d, sections 200 and 201, subdivision d of section 215, subdivisions 9 and 10 of section 666, and subdivisions e and h of section 668, as approved by the electors on November 4, 2025, shall take effect immediately upon certification that the electors have approved such amendments to the charter.

p. (1) The amendments to the charter adding sections 197-f, 666-a and subdivision d-1 of section 668, and amending subdivisions b and g of section 197-e, subdivision d of section 215, subdivisions 9 and 10 of section 666, and subdivisions e and h of section 668, as approved by the electors on November 4, 2025, shall take effect immediately upon certification that the electors have approved such amendments to the charter.

QUESTION 3

Section 1. Section 197-d of the New York city charter, as added by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 7, 1989, is amended to read as follows:

§ 197-d. Council Review. a. The city planning commission shall file with the council and with the affected borough president a copy of its decisions to approve or approve with modifications (1) all matters described in subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c, (2) plans pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-a, and (3) changes in the text of the zoning resolution pursuant to sections two hundred and two hundred one. Any such filing of a decision pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c shall be completed prior to the expiration of the sixty-day period for action by the commission. Any such filing with the council shall include copies of all written recommendations of community boards, borough boards and borough presidents with respect to the decision being filed.

b. [The] Except for decisions of the city planning commission to approve or approve with modifications applications reviewed pursuant to the expedited land use review procedure set forth in subdivisions c through j of section one hundred ninety-seven-e, the following decisions filed with the council pursuant to subdivision a of this section, shall be subject to review and action by the council:

(1) any decision of the city planning commission to approve or approve with modifications a matter described in paragraph three or eight of subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c, a disposition of residential real property (as defined in this paragraph) pursuant to paragraph ten of subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c [(except for dispositions to companies that have been organized exclusively to develop housing projects for persons of low income)], a plan pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-a, or a change in the text of the zoning resolution pursuant to sections two hundred or two hundred one, except for a change to such text pursuant to paragraph four of subdivision a of section two hundred. For purposes of this section, residential real property shall mean real property improved by structures, whether or not occupied, built for or converted to a use which is primarily residential, but shall not include property subsequently converted to non-residential use;

(2) any other decision of the city planning commission to approve or approve with modifications a matter described in subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c, if (i) both an affected community board (after holding a public hearing) and the affected borough president, within the time periods allotted for their reviews pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c, have recommended in writing against approval and (ii) the affected borough president, within five days of receiving a copy of the decision of the commission, files with the commission and the council a written objection to the decision; and

(3) any other decision of the city planning commission to approve or approve with modifications a matter described in subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c, if within twenty days of the filing of such decision pursuant to subdivision a of this section, the council resolves by the majority vote of all the council members to review the decision of the commission.

c. [Within] Except as provided in subdivision c-1 of this section, within fifty days of the filing with the council pursuant to subdivision a of this section of any decision of the city planning commission which pursuant to subdivision b of this section is subject to review by the council, the council shall hold a public hearing, after giving public notice not less than five days in advance of such hearing, and the council, within such fifty days, shall take final action on the decision. The affirmative vote of a majority of all the council members shall be required to approve, approve with modifications or disapprove such a decision. If, within the time period provided for in this subdivision and, if applicable, in subdivision d of this section, the council fails to act or fails to act by the required vote on a decision of the city planning commission subject to council review pursuant to subdivision b of this section, the council shall be deemed to have approved the decision of the commission.

c-1. Notwithstanding subdivision c of this section, within thirty days of any filing with the council of any application made by the city pursuant to paragraph one of subdivision k of section one hundred ninety-seven-e, or within forty-five days of any such filing made during the months of June, July or August, the council shall hold a public hearing, after giving public notice not less than five days in advance of such hearing, and, within such thirty days or forty-five days, as applicable, approve or disapprove such application. The affirmative vote of a majority of all the council members shall be required to approve or disapprove such a decision. If, within the time period provided for in this subdivision, the council fails to act or fails to act by the required vote on an application made pursuant to this section, the council shall be deemed to have approved the application.

d. The council shall not approve with modifications a commission decision if the commission has determined pursuant to this subdivision that additional review of the modifications is required. Prior to approving a decision of the commission with modifications, the council shall file the text of any such proposed modifications with the commission. Within fifteen days of such filing, the commission shall file with the council a written statement indicating whether such proposed modifications are of such significance that additional review of environmental issues or additional review pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c is required. If no additional review is required, the commission may include in such statement its advisory recommendation concerning the proposed modifications, together with any proposed amendments to the proposed modifications. The council may thereafter approve such proposed modifications, with or without the amendments proposed by the commission. The time period for council action shall be tolled during such fifteen-day period[;], provided, however, that proposed modifications may be referred to the commission pursuant to this subdivision only once with respect to each application or group of related applications under review by the council.

e. All actions of the council pursuant to this section shall be filed by the council with the mayor prior to the expiration of the time period for council action under subdivisions c and, if applicable, d of this section. Actions of the council pursuant to this section shall be final unless the mayor within five days of receiving a filing with respect to such an action of the council files with the council a written disapproval of the action. Any mayoral disapproval under this subdivision shall be subject to override by a two-thirds vote of all the council members within ten days of such filing by the mayor.

f. The mayor shall have the right to file a written disapproval of any approval deemed to have occurred pursuant to [subdivision] subdivisions c or c-1 of this section as a result of a failure of the council to act or to act by the required vote. Any such written disapproval must be filed within five days of the expiration of the time period for action by the council under subdivisions c and, if applicable, d of this section. Any mayoral disapproval under this subdivision shall be subject to override by a two-thirds vote of all the council members within ten days of such filing by the mayor.

g. If a decision of the commission approving an application is not subject to council review pursuant to paragraph one of subdivision b of this section or is not made subject to council review pursuant to paragraphs two or three of subdivision b of this section, the mayor may nonetheless file with the council a written objection to such decision of the commission within five days of the expiration of time for the council to act under paragraph three of subdivision b of this section. Any mayoral objection under this subdivision shall be subject to override by a two-thirds vote of all the council members within ten days of such filing by the mayor.

§ 2. Subdivision b of section 199 of the New York city charter, as amended by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 7, 1989, is amended to read as follows:

b. The review of any proposed addition to or change in the city map initiated by or referred to the city planning commission shall be made pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c and section one hundred ninety-seven-d, or pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-e, as applicable.

§ 3. Subdivision a of section 218 of the New York city charter, as amended by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 7, 1989, is amended to read as follows:

a. The selection of sites for capital projects shall be pursuant to the uniform procedures provided pursuant to sections one hundred ninety-seven-c and one hundred ninety-seven-d, except for acquisition of office space pursuant to section one hundred ninety-five, and except for the selection of a site for a resiliency project, a solar energy generation project, or the creation of open space subject to section one hundred ninety-seven-e.

§ 4. Chapter 8 of the New York city charter is amended by adding a new section 197-e to read as follows:

§ 197-e. Expedited land use review procedure. a. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following terms have the following meanings:

Base flood elevation. The term “base flood elevation” has the same meaning as set forth in section 202 of the New York city building code.

Coastal special flood hazard area. The term “coastal special flood hazard area” refers to the areas of land as identified on the flood insurance rate maps referenced in the New York city building code section G402 pursuant to article 36 of the New York state environmental conservation law.

Open space. The term “open space” means real property that: (i) is outdoors, (ii) is owned by the city, (iii) is available for public access or is protected as a sensitive natural area, and (iv) serves to mitigate impacts from or to reduce vulnerability to rising sea levels, extreme weather events and natural disasters, including but not limited to parks, promenades, esplanades, greenways, nature preserves, and recreational piers.

Resiliency project. The term “resiliency project” means any construction or improvement for which the primary purpose is to mitigate impacts from or to reduce vulnerability to rising sea levels, extreme weather events, and natural disasters, including but not limited to coastal flood protection infrastructure, wetland protection and expansion, and stormwater drainage.

Solar energy generation project. The term “solar energy generation project” means a project for which the primary purpose is to generate electricity through the use of photovoltaics.

Ten-year rainfall flood risk area. The term “ten-year rainfall flood risk area” means an area designated on a map promulgated by the department of environmental protection that represents locations in the city where there is a ten percent chance or greater of rainfall-induced flooding in any year.

b. Notwithstanding subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c and except as provided in subdivision k of this section, applications by any person or agency for any of the following changes, approvals, permits, or authorizations thereof, respecting the use, development or improvement of real property subject to city regulation in any of the following categories, that would otherwise be subject to review pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c, shall be reviewed pursuant to the expedited review procedure set forth in this section:

1. Any of the following changes in the city map pursuant to section one hundred ninety-eight and section one hundred ninety-nine:

(a) (1) The mapping or discontinuance of a street, other than the discontinuance of an existing built street, to enable or facilitate a project for the development or preservation of affordable housing developed or preserved by a company that has been organized exclusively to develop housing projects for persons of low income, or for the development of a resiliency project or open space; or

(2) The mapping of any street needed to meet the street or highway public access requirements set forth in section thirty-six of the general city law;

(b) The raising of the grade of a street or bridge to no more than two and a half feet above the base flood elevation in any area for which such a base flood elevation has been specified or determined in accordance with the New York city building code, or, in any area where a base flood elevation has not been specified or determined, to no more than two and a half feet above the grade of such street or bridge as established on or before the effective date of this section;

(c) The widening of any street or bridge, as necessary to enable a raising of such street or bridge as described in subparagraph b, no more than five feet greater than the width of such street or bridge as established on or before the effective date of this section;

(d) Any other change to the city map relating to the acquisition of real property by the city for the purposes of a resiliency project or creation of open space;

2. Designations of zoning districts under the zoning resolution, including conversion from one land use to another land use, pursuant to sections two hundred and two hundred one, provided that the area to be designated permits residential uses at the time of application and that no part of the area to be designated has been designated pursuant to this paragraph in the ten years prior to such application, and provided further that:

(a) where the district designated at the time of application (i) is a residence district, or a commercial district that allows residential uses equivalent to such residence district, (ii) has a standard maximum residential building height of greater than forty-five feet, regulates the maximum height of buildings by something other a horizontal plane and such other plane permits residential buildings to exceed forty-five feet, or has no maximum building height, the district to be designated, (i) would increase maximum residential floor area, (ii) such increase does not exceed thirty percent and (iii) would not be a zoning district that regulates the maximum height of buildings by anything other than a horizontal plane, unless the district designated at the time of application also does not regulate the maximum height of buildings by a horizontal plane; or

(b) for any other designation, the district to be designated would increase residential capacity, has a standard maximum residential floor area of not more than 2.0, and has a standard maximum residential building height of not more than forty-five feet;

3. Site selection for any capital project that is a resiliency project, solar energy generation project or project for the creation of open space, pursuant to section two hundred eighteen, provided that any buildings included in such capital project shall have an area, in the aggregate, of no more than five thousand square feet;

4. Sale, lease (other than the lease of office space), exchange, or other disposition of the real property of the city, including the sale or lease of land under water pursuant to section eight hundred twenty-four, chapter fifteen, and other applicable provisions of law, to private owners of abutting property or an entity comprised thereof, provided such real property of the city is not inalienable property and cannot be independently developed, as determined by the mayor, because singly or in combination, its size, shape, applicable zoning, configuration, or topography render such development economically impracticable or infeasible;

5. Lease of the real property of the city, for purposes of a solar energy generation project;

6. Acquisition by purchase by the city of real property (other than the acquisition of office space for office use or a building for office use), including the acquisition of land under water pursuant to section eight hundred twenty-four, chapter fifteen, and other applicable provisions of law, for the purpose of a voluntary buy-out program of property, provided that:

(a) Such property is used for residential purposes, contains no less than one and no more than four dwelling units, and is located in either a coastal special flood hazard area or a ten-year rainfall flood risk area;

(b) Such property is located in an area that, on any date within the five years preceding the date of filing the application, was a federally declared disaster area; or

(c) Such acquisition is authorized by a local law relating to a voluntary buy-out program;

7. Acquisition by the city of real property (other than the acquisition of office space for office use or a building for office use), including acquisition by purchase, condemnation, exchange or lease and including the acquisition by purchase of land under water pursuant to section eight hundred twenty-four, chapter fifteen, and other applicable provisions of law, for the purpose of developing a resiliency project, open space, or a solar energy generation project, and provided that such property:

(1) Contains freshwater wetlands or tidal wetlands that are adjacent to city-owned property, as such terms are defined in sections 24-0107 and 25-0103 of the environmental conservation law, respectively;

(2) Is undeveloped and in a mapped street or extends under water;

(3) Has no owner of record; or

(4) Is privately owned, is adjacent to city-owned property, and cannot be independently developed, as determined by the mayor, because, singly or in combination, its size, shape, applicable zoning, configuration, or topography render such development economically impracticable or infeasible.

8. Such other matters involving the use, development or improvement of property as are proposed by the city planning commission and enacted by the council pursuant to local law.

c. For any application reviewed pursuant to this section, except as set forth in subdivision k of this section, the applicant shall file with the department of city planning the documents required for applications reviewed under the uniform land use review procedure, as set forth in subdivision b of section one hundred ninety-seven-c. The department of city planning shall forward a copy of any materials it receives pursuant to this subdivision (whether or not such materials have been certified as complete) within five days to each affected borough president or community board.

d. The department of city planning shall be responsible for certifying that applications filed with such department pursuant to subdivision c of this section are complete and ready to proceed through the expedited land use review procedure. The department shall not certify an application unless (1) each affected borough president and community board has received from the department, at least thirty days before certification, a pre-certification notice containing information specified by the city planning commission, which shall include the project location, the purpose of the proposed actions, and a description of the proposed actions, sufficient to put such borough president and community board on notice of the substance of the application, and (2) the application is substantially consistent with such notice. The department shall also publish such notice on the department's website within five days of such transmission. Upon certification of an application, the department shall give notice of such certification to the council.

e. 1. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph two of this subdivision or in subdivision k of this section, each affected community board shall, not later than sixty days after receipt of an application that has been certified pursuant to subdivision d of this section:

(a) notify the public of the application in a manner specified by the city planning commission pursuant to subdivision h of this section; and

(b) either (i) conduct a public hearing thereon and prepare and submit a written recommendation to the city planning commission, or (ii) where authorized by this charter, submit a written waiver of the right to conduct a public hearing and to submit such written recommendations to the commission.

2. Where an application has been certified during the month of June, the affected community board shall provide notification pursuant to subparagraph a of paragraph one of this subdivision and conduct a hearing or, where authorized, submit a waiver of the right to conduct a public hearing pursuant to subparagraph b of paragraph one of this subdivision not later than ninety days after receipt of such application or, where such application is certified during the period of time from and including July 1 to and including July 15, not later than seventy-five days after receipt of such application.

f. 1. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph two of this subdivision, each affected borough president shall, not later than sixty days after receipt of an application that has been certified pursuant to subdivision d of this section, submit a written recommendation or waiver thereof to the city planning commission.

2. Where an application has been certified during the month of June, the affected borough president shall submit such recommendation or waiver not later than ninety days after receipt of such application or, where such application is certified during the period of time from and including July 1 to and including July 15, not later than seventy-five days after receipt of such application.

g. Not later than thirty days after expiration of time allowed for the filing of a recommendation or waiver with the city planning commission by the affected community board and borough president, the commission shall conduct a public hearing on such application and approve, approve with modifications, or disapprove the application. Any such approval or approval with modifications of the commission shall require the affirmative vote of at least seven of the members. Prior to taking any action pursuant to this subdivision on a matter involving the siting of a capital project, the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition or acquisition of real property, the city planning commission may obtain a report from the office of management and budget or the department of citywide administrative services, as appropriate. Any action of the city planning commission which modifies or disapproves a written recommendation of the affected community board or borough president shall be accompanied by a written explanation of its reason for such action. Notwithstanding any contrary provision of this chapter, the city planning commission shall not file an application reviewed pursuant to this section with the council, and such an application filed pursuant to this section shall not be subject to section one hundred ninety-seven-d, except as set forth in subdivision k of this section.

h. The city planning commission shall establish rules providing (1) guidelines, minimum standards, and procedural requirements for community boards, borough presidents, and the commission in the exercise of their duties and responsibilities pursuant to this section, (2) minimum standards for certification of applications pursuant to subdivision d of this section, and

(3) specific time periods for review of applications pursuant to this section prior to certification. The commission may establish such other rules as necessary for the implementation of this section, including rules for determining whether an application is subject to review pursuant to this section.

i. If a community board or borough president fails or waives its right to act within the time limits for review pursuant to subdivisions e or f of this section, the application shall be referred to city planning commission, except as set forth in subdivision k of this section. If the city planning commission fails to act on an application within the time limit specified in subdivision g of this section, the application shall be deemed to have been denied.

j. Notice of any hearing on an application by the city planning commission shall be published in the city record at least ten days immediately prior to the date of the hearing, and a copy of the notice shall be mailed to all community boards affected by the application.

k. 1. Notwithstanding subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c or any provision of this section to the contrary, applications by an agency for any of the following changes, approvals, permits, or authorizations thereof, respecting the use, development or improvement of real property subject to city regulation in any of the following categories, that would otherwise be subject to review pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c, shall be reviewed pursuant to the procedure set forth in this subdivision:

(a) Sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of the real property of the city, including the acquisition of land under water pursuant to section eight hundred twenty-four, chapter fifteen, and other applicable provisions of law, to companies that have been organized exclusively to develop housing projects for persons of low income; and

(b) Acquisition by the city of real property, including acquisition by purchase, condemnation, exchange or lease and including the acquisition of land under water pursuant to section eight hundred twenty-four, chapter fifteen, and other applicable provisions of law for the purpose of disposition of such property to a company that has been organized exclusively to develop housing projects for persons of low income.

2. The applicant shall submit to each affected community board and affected borough president the documents required for applications reviewed under the uniform land use review procedure, as set forth in subdivision b of section one hundred ninety-seven-c.

3. Each affected community board and affected borough president shall, not later than sixty days after receipt of such application, prepare and submit a written recommendation to the council and to the applicant, provided that such community board shall notify the public of the application and conduct a public hearing prior to such submission. Where such application is received during the month of June, the affected community board shall notify the public of the application and conduct a public hearing or, where authorized, submit a waiver of the right to conduct a public hearing not later than ninety days after receipt of such application or, where such application is received during the period of time from and including July 1 to and including July 15, not later than seventy-five days after receipt of such application.

4. If a community board or borough president fails or waives its right to act within the time limits for review pursuant to paragraph three of this subdivision, the application shall be referred to the council for review and action.

5. The applicant shall file such application with the council, and such application shall be reviewed in accordance with subdivision c-1 of section one hundred ninety-seven-d. Any such filing with the council shall include copies of all written recommendations of community boards and borough presidents with respect to the decision being filed.

l. 1. Notwithstanding any provision in this section to the contrary, applications filed pursuant to paragraphs one through eight of subdivision b or subdivision k of this section that are required by law to include an environmental impact statement shall not be subject to the expedited land use review procedure as set forth in this section.

2. Notwithstanding any provision in this section to the contrary, an application subject to one hundred ninety-seven-e that is filed in conjunction with an application subject to section one hundred ninety-seven-c may adhere to the review process set forth in sections one hundred ninety-seven-c and one hundred ninety-seven-d.

§ 5. Section 200 of the New York city charter, as amended by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 7, 1989, is amended to read as follows:

a. Except as provided in subdivision b, any existing resolution or regulation of the council, the board of estimate or of the city planning commission to regulate and limit the height and bulk of buildings, to regulate and determine the area of yards, courts and other open spaces, to regulate density of population or to regulate and restrict the locations of trades and industries and location of buildings designed for specific uses or creating districts for any such purpose, including any such regulation which provides that the board of standards and appeals may determine and vary the application of such resolutions or regulations in harmony with their general purpose and intent and in accordance with general or specific rules contained in such regulations, may be amended, repealed or added to only in the following manner:

1. The city planning commission may upon its own initiative at any time or upon application as provided in section two hundred one, adopt a resolution to amend the text of the zoning resolution subject to the limitations provided by law. Before adopting any such resolution, the commission shall notify any community board or borough board affected by the resolution and shall afford persons interested an opportunity to be heard at a time and place to be specified in a notice of hearing to be published in the City Record for the ten days of publication of the City Record immediately prior thereto setting forth in general terms the nature of the proposed resolution and a statement of the place at which the entire resolution may be examined.

2. Any resolution by the commission approving a change in the text of the zoning resolution shall be subject to review and approval by the council pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-d. Any resolution for a zoning text change which the mayor shall have certified to the council as necessary, and which has been disapproved by the commission, may be adopted by the council by a two-thirds vote and, after notice to the parties affected, a public hearing. The council shall act upon such resolution within fifty days of the filing of the certification of the mayor with the council, and such resolution shall become effective upon approval by the council.

3. In case a protest against such a resolution approved by the city planning commission shall have been presented to the city clerk within thirty days from the date of the filing of such resolution with the council, duly signed and acknowledged by the owners of twenty per cent or more of the area of:

(1) the land included in changes proposed in such proposed resolution, or

(2) the land immediately adjacent extending one hundred feet therefrom, or

(3) the land, if any, directly opposite thereto extending one hundred feet from the street frontage of such opposite land, such resolution shall not be effective after the filing of such protest unless approved by the council by a three-fourths vote within one hundred eighty days after the filing of said resolution with the city clerk. The effective date of such resolution, if so approved, shall be the date of such approval. A protest duly filed as herein provided may be withdrawn at any time within sixty days from the date of the filing of such resolution.

4. Notwithstanding anything in this subdivision to the contrary, where a resolution that would apply to specified parcels of real property a program established in the zoning resolution that mandates that any new housing on designated lots include minimum percentages of permanently affordable housing equivalent to or exceeding the requirements under any mandatory inclusionary housing program is proposed in conjunction with an application that is reviewed under section one hundred ninety-seven-e, the adoption of such resolution shall be pursuant to the expedited land use review procedure set forth in subdivisions c through j of section one hundred ninety-seven-e instead of the review procedure set forth in paragraphs one through three of this subdivision.

b. Designations of zoning districts under the zoning resolution and the issuance of special permits which under the terms of the zoning resolution are within the jurisdiction of the city planning commission shall be subject to review and approval pursuant to the procedures provided in section one hundred ninety-seven-c and section one hundred ninety-seven-d, except for applications to designate a zoning district under the zoning resolution reviewed in accordance with section one hundred ninety-seven-e, and except that whenever the city planning commission has not recommended approval of a proposed change in the designation of a zoning district or the issuance of a special permit under the zoning resolution or has failed to act on such a matter within the time specified in section one hundred ninety-seven-c, the council by a two-thirds vote may approve such change or the issuance of such permit only if the mayor shall have certified to the council that such change or issuance is necessary. The council shall act upon such designation or permit within fifty days of the filing of the certification of the mayor with the council.

§ 6. Subdivision a of section 201 of the New York city charter, as amended by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 7, 1989, is amended to read as follows:

a. Applications for changes in the zoning resolution may be filed by any taxpayer, community board, borough board, borough president, by the mayor or by the land use committee of the council if two-thirds of the members of the committee shall have voted to approve such filing with the city planning commission. All such applications involving changes in the designation of zoning districts under the zoning resolution shall be subject to review and approval pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c and one hundred ninety-seven-d, except as set forth in section one hundred ninety-seven-e. For applications involving other changes in zoning resolutions and regulations, the commission prior to taking action upon any such application shall refer it to the affected community boards or borough boards for a public hearing and recommendation, provided, however, that applications described in paragraph four of section two hundred, shall be referred to affected community boards and the affected borough president in accordance with the expedited land use review procedure set forth in section one hundred ninety-seven-e.

p. (2) The amendments to the charter amending sections 197-d, 199, 200, 201, 218 and adding a new section 197-e, approved by the electors on November 4, 2025, shall take effect immediately upon certification that the electors have approved such amendments to the charter, provided that such amendments shall not apply to an application that has been certified as complete pursuant to section 197-c at the time such amendments take effect.

QUESTION 4

Section 1. Section 197-d of the New York city charter is amended by adding a new subdivision e-1, to read as follows:

e-1. Notwithstanding subdivision e of this section, actions of the council pursuant to this section that are subject to review by the affordable housing appeals board pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-g, shall be filed by the council with such board prior to the expiration of the time period for council action under subdivision c of this section, or if applicable, subdivision d of this section. Actions of the council subject to review by the affordable housing appeals board pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-g, shall be final unless, within five days of such action, the applicant appeals such action to such board or no fewer than two members of such board determine to review such action.

§ 2. Subdivision f of section 197-d of the New York city charter, as added by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 7, 1989, is amended to read as follows:

f. The mayor shall have the right to file a written disapproval of any approval deemed to have occurred pursuant to subdivision c of this section as a result of a failure of the council to act or to act by the required vote, except where an application is subject to one hundred ninety-seven-g. Any such written disapproval must be filed within five days of the expiration of the time period for action by the council under subdivisions c and, if applicable, d of this section. Any mayoral disapproval under this subdivision shall be subject to override by a two-thirds vote of all the council members within ten days of such filing by the mayor.

§ 3. Chapter 8 of the New York city charter is amended by adding a new section 197-g to read as follows:

§ 197-g. Affordable housing appeals board. a. There shall be an affordable housing appeals board to consist of the mayor, the speaker of the council, and the affected borough president, or the designee of each such member.

b. The affordable housing appeals board shall have the power to review actions of the council that meet the following criteria:

- 1. Such action is taken pursuant to subdivision c of section one hundred ninety-seven-d;*
- 2. Such action disapproves or approves with modifications an application that would directly facilitate the development of affordable housing, including but not limited to actions that include the application to specified parcels of real property a program established in the zoning resolution that mandates that any new housing on designated lots include minimum percentages of permanently affordable housing equivalent to or exceeding the requirements under any mandatory inclusionary housing program, and related actions that directly facilitate such housing, such as special permits that modify residential bulk regulations or remove required residential parking; and*

3. The application does not include land located in two or more boroughs or relate to an urban renewal plan filed pursuant to paragraph eight of subdivision a of section one hundred ninety-seven-c.

c. The board shall review such action by the council if, within five days of such action, the applicant requests review of such action by the board or each of at least two members of the board state in separate writings to the department of the city planning that such action should be reviewed.

d. Within fifteen days of an applicant requesting review by the board or the date by which two or more members of the board state in writing that such action should be reviewed, the board shall (i) hold a public meeting, after giving public notice not less than five days in advance of such meeting, and (ii) take final action on the decision. The board may, by an affirmative majority vote, approve an application disapproved by the council, or reverse one or more modifications made by the council, provided that any modifications made by the board shall be limited to removing one or more modifications made by the council and restoring, in relevant part, the application as it was approved by the city planning commission. If, within the time period provided for in this subdivision or subdivision e of this section, the board fails to act or fails to act by the required vote, the board shall be deemed to have affirmed the decision of the council.

e. The board shall not approve with modifications an application subject to its review if the city planning commission has determined pursuant to this subdivision that additional review of the modifications is required. Prior to approving a decision of the council with modifications, the board shall file any such proposed modifications with the commission, provided that the board need not file such proposed modifications with the commission where such modifications wholly restore the application as it was approved by the city planning commission. Within fifteen days of such filing, the commission shall file with the council a written statement indicating whether such proposed modifications are of such significance that additional review of environmental issues or additional review pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-c is required. If no additional review is required, the board may thereafter approve such proposed modifications. The time period for board action shall be tolled during such fifteen-day period, provided, however, that proposed modifications may be referred to the commission pursuant to this subdivision only once with respect to each application or group of related applications under review by the board.

f. The city planning commission shall promulgate rules for determining whether an application directly facilitates the development of additional affordable housing, as set forth in paragraph two of subdivision b of this section.

p. (3) The amendments to the charter adding a new section 197-g and a new subdivision e-1 of section 197-d, and amending subdivision f of section 197-d, as approved by the electors on November 4, 2025, shall take effect immediately upon certification that the electors have approved such amendments to the charter.

QUESTION 5

Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 82 of the New York city charter, as amended by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 8, 1988, is amended to read as follows:

3. Continue to maintain a topographical bureau for such borough and appoint the director of the bureau who shall also serve as construction coordinator and consulting engineer for the borough and shall have qualifications as a licensed professional engineer, provided that upon consolidation of the city map pursuant to paragraph one of subdivision b of section one hundred ninety-eight, the president of a borough need not maintain such topographical bureau or appoint the director of such bureau. [In] If such bureau is maintained, in addition to other duties, the director of the bureau shall monitor capital projects in the borough and shall be available to serve as an expediter on construction projects in the borough and provide technical assistance with respect to construction projects.

§ 2. Section 198 of the New York city charter, as amended by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 7, 1989, is amended, and a new subdivision d is added, to read as follows:

b. The director of city planning shall be the custodian of the city map, and it shall be his or her duty to complete and maintain the same and to register thereon all changes resulting from action authorized by law.

1. No later than January 1, 2028, such director shall consolidate each component of the city map maintained by the topographical bureau for each borough into a single city map, which shall be the official city map, provided that, where the city planning commission determines that such consolidation of each such component into a single city map by such date is not practicable, the director of city planning shall consolidate each such component into a single city map by such date as such commission determines is feasible.

2. No later than January 1, 2029, such director shall create a digital city map and file an application for review of such digital city map pursuant to sections one hundred ninety-seven-c and one hundred ninety-seven-d, provided that, upon finding that the creation of a digital map is not practicable by such date, the director of city planning shall create such digital map by such date as such director determines is feasible. Upon approval of such digital map pursuant to section one hundred ninety-seven-d, such digital map shall become the city map.

c. The city map shall be on file in the office of the department of city planning, and certified copies thereof and of all changes thereto shall be filed in the offices of the corporation counsel, of the city clerk and of the borough president of the borough in which the land shown on the map is located and in the office in which conveyances of real estate are required to be recorded in the county in which the land shown on the map is located, provided that the upon adoption of the digital city map as the city map pursuant to paragraph two of subdivision b of this section, such map need not be on file.

d. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this charter or the administrative code, the director of city planning shall assign street numbers of buildings. In all cases where a street shall have been numbered or renumbered, the director shall thereafter adjust and renumber such street as the same may be required from time to time. The director may enact rules relating to: (i) the display, size, form, visibility and location of street numbers; (ii) enforcement of the provisions of this section and any such rules; and (iii) civil penalties for violations of such provisions or rules.

p. (4) The amendments to the charter amending subdivision 3 of section 82 and section 198, approved by the electors on November 4, 2025, shall take effect immediately upon certification that the electors have approved such amendments to the charter, except that the amendments to subdivision d of section 198 shall take effect on January 1, 2027.

QUESTION 6

Section 1. The New York city charter is amended by adding a new section 1057-h to read as follows:

§ 1057-h. Elections held in even-numbered years; terms. a. General elections in even-numbered years. Notwithstanding any other provision of this charter, election of the mayor, comptroller, public advocate, members of the council, and borough presidents of the city of New York shall be held on the Tuesday succeeding the first Monday in November in the year two thousand twenty-eight, and every fourth year thereafter, provided, however, that the first such general election held in an even-numbered year at which the mayor, comptroller, public advocate, members of the council, and borough presidents shall be elected shall be the first such general election held on the same date in an even-numbered year that coincides with the election held to elect the president succeeding a date upon which elections for city offices are authorized by state law to be held in even-numbered years. Notwithstanding subdivision a of section 25, members of the council shall not serve a term of two years.

b. Transition to general elections held in even-numbered years. 1. Upon the effective date of a state law authorizing elections for city offices to be held in even-numbered years, citywide elections thenceforth shall occur on the date of the even-year general election for president of the United States, provided that a state law that takes effect after February first in the year of such general election or at any time in the following year shall be deemed to take effect for purposes of this section on the first day of the next four-year or two-year term. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of this charter or other local law, the length of terms in which elected officials are serving shall be adjusted upon such effective date to three years or, or to one year in the case of a two-year term for city council members, where necessary to ensure implementation of this section. The campaign finance board, in consultation with the corporation counsel, may publish in the city record and on its website a transitional schedule of terms and elections for city elected officers.

2. Notwithstanding any other provision of this charter or other local law, a term of office that is shortened by operation of paragraph 1 of this subdivision during such term shall not constitute a full term for purposes of section 1138.

3. The campaign finance board may enact rules governing the disclosure of expenditures in support of or in opposition to any candidate, or in support of or in opposition to any municipal ballot proposal or referendum, for any election subject to paragraph 1 of this subdivision.

c. Nothing in this section shall be construed to alter the process for filling a vacancy in the office of the mayor, comptroller, public advocate, members of the council, or a borough president of the city of New York, except that where such a vacancy occurs during the first 2 years of a 3-year, such vacancy shall be filled in accordance with the following sections: (i) with respect to the mayor, subdivision c of section 10; (ii) with respect to comptroller, subdivision c of section 94; (iii) with respect to public advocate, subdivision c of section 24; (iv) with respect to members of the council, subdivision b of section 25; and (v) with respect to borough presidents, subdivision e of section 81.

§ 2. Section 4 of the New York city charter, as amended by local law number 19 for the year 2016, is amended to read as follows:

§ 4. Election; term; salary. [The] Except as provided in section 1057-h, the mayor shall be elected at the general election in the year nineteen hundred sixty-five and every fourth year thereafter. [The] Except as provided in section 1057-h, the mayor shall hold office for a term of four years commencing on the first day of January after each such election. A mayor who resigns or is removed from office prior to the completion of a full term shall be deemed to have held that office for a full term for purposes of section 1138 of the charter. The salary of the mayor shall be two hundred fifty-eight thousand seven hundred fifty dollars a year.

§ 3. The opening paragraph of subdivision a of section 25 of the New York city charter, as amended by local law number 27 for the year 2002, is amended to read as follows:

§ 25. Election; term; vacancies. a. [The] Except as provided in section 1057-h, the council members shall be elected at the general election in the year nineteen hundred seventy-seven and every fourth year thereafter and the term of office of each council member shall commence on the first day of January after the elections and shall continue for four years thereafter; provided, however, that the council member elected at the general election in the year two thousand and one and at the general election in every twentieth year thereafter shall serve for a term of two years commencing on the first day of January after such election; and provided further that an additional election of Council Members shall be held at the general election in the year two thousand three and at the general election every twentieth year thereafter and that the members elected at each such additional election shall serve for a term of two years beginning on the first day of January after such election.

§ 4. Subdivision b of section 50 of the New York city charter is amended by adding a new paragraph 2-a to read as follows:

2-a. Notwithstanding any other provision of this section to the contrary, where a general election of the council is held in an even-numbered year in accordance with section 1057-h, the mayor shall convene one or more meetings described in paragraph two of this subdivision, no later than twenty-two months before the general election of the council to be held in the year two thousand thirty-two and every ten years thereafter, provided that a state law authorizing elections for city offices to be held in even-numbered years has been in effect for at least twenty-two months prior to such general election.

§ 5. Section 50 of the New York city charter is amended by adding a new subdivision c-1 to read as follows:

c-1. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in subdivision c of this section, each council delegation authorized by subdivision a of this section to make appointments to the commission shall make such appointments no earlier than one year and ten months before, and no later than one year and nine months before the general election of the council to be held in the year two thousand thirty-two and every ten years thereafter, as set forth in paragraph 2-a of subdivision b of this section, provided that a state law authorizing elections for city offices to be held in even-numbered years has been in effect for at least twenty-two months prior to such general election. In any case in which the chairpersons of the county committees of a political party are authorized to submit nominations to the mayor, such nominations shall be submitted no earlier than one year and ten months before, and no later than one year and nine months before, the general election of the council to be held in the year two thousand thirty-two and every ten years thereafter as set forth in paragraph 2-a of subdivision b, provided that a state law authorizing elections for city offices to be held in even-numbered years has been in effect for at least twenty-two months.

§ 6. Subdivision c of section 51, as amended by a vote of the electors on November 5, 2019, is amended to read as follows:

c. The commission shall submit its plan to the city council not less than one year and three months before the general election of the city council to be held in the year nineteen hundred ninety-three and every ten years thereafter, or, if applicable, the general election of the city council to be held in the year two thousand thirty-two and every ten years thereafter, as set forth in paragraph 2-a of subdivision b of section fifty.

p. (5) The amendment to the charter adding a new section 1057-h, paragraph 2-a of subdivision b of section 50, and subdivision c-1 of section 50, and amending section 4, the opening paragraph of subdivision a of section 25, and subdivision c of section 51, approved by the electors on November 4, 2025, shall take effect on a date upon which elections for city offices are authorized by state law to be held in even-numbered years.
