Re: Agency Obligations under the Substantial Policy Discretion Rule of the Conflicts of Interest Board

Dear Mr. Davies:

The following agency employees have substantial policy discretion and will be notified in writing of the political activity restrictions contained in the New York City Charter, §2604(b)(12), and §2604(b)(15):

NAME	POSITION
Marlene A. Gold	Chair/Director
Steven C. DeCosta	Deputy Director/General Counsel
Susan J. Panepento	Deputy Director for Disputes

In addition, the following board members will be notified of the political activity restrictions contained in Charter §2604(b)(12), and §2604(b)(15):

SUBJECT: Annual Notice to Public Servants with Substantial Policy Discretion

DATE: February 4, 2010

The conflicts of interest provisions of the New York City Charter, Chapter 68, place restrictions on political activity by certain City officials, including those charged with substantial policy discretion. The rules of the Conflicts of Interest Board require each agency to annually identify those employees and notify them in writing of the restrictions contained in Charter § 2604(b)(12) and (15).

You have been identified as a public servant charged with substantial policy discretion, as defined by Conflicts of Interest Board Rule § 1-02. As such, you are subject to certain restrictions on your political activity under the conflicts of interest provisions of the New York City Charter.

The attached "Notice to New York City Public Servants Having Substantial Policy Discretion," dated January 29, 2010 from the Conflicts of Interest Board is provided to you as notice of those restrictions
