Re: Walmart 2012 Summer Youth Employment Initiative

Dear Ms. Curnan:

The New York City Mayor's Office to Combat Domestic Violence (OCDV) is pleased to support the application by The Mayor's Fund to Advance New York (Mayor's Fund) to receive funding from the National Program Office for the Walmart 2012 Summer Youth Employment Initiative for innovative employment and work-readiness programming in New York City.

We understand that this application, if funded, would allow the Mayor's Fund to partner with the New York City Department of Youth and Community Development (DYCD) and DYCD-funded youth employment contractors to expand the New York City Summer Youth Employment Program (SYEP) and build on its capacity to serve low income, vulnerable youth between the ages of 14 and 24.

Since 2006, OCDV has partnered with DYCD and its contractors to provide SYEP participants with educational workshops on awareness and prevention of domestic violence as part of the educational component of the SYEP program. These workshops are facilitated by OCDV staff and youth participants trained by OCDV, and emphasize the importance of healthy relationships.

In the event that the application by the Mayor's Fund is granted, OCDV will be pleased to provide similar services to youth served through the Walmart 2012 Summer Youth Employment Initiative and to work with DYCD and its partners to sustain and leverage these resources in the future. We request your favorable consideration of this application and thank you for providing this opportunity to make a difference in the lives of young New Yorkers.

Sincerely,

Yolanda B. Jimenez

RE: Department of Health and Human Services, Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, National Child Traumatic Stress Initiative- Category III Community Treatment and Services Centers (CTS) Grant

Dear Dr. Brown:

I am writing to express my support for the PARTNERS Program application for funding titled "Community PARTNERS for Promoting Evidence-Based Treatment Planning and Trauma Services."

Since 2009, the Community PARTNERS Program has been a strong partner of the New York City Family Justice Center in Queens, a one-stop domestic violence service center which is administered by my office. The Queens FJC has collaborated with the PARTNERS Program on two projects thus far, the BRIDGES Project and Project CONNECT, which aims to increase awareness and services to families affected by interpersonal violence. We have worked with the Community PARTNERS program to adapt treatment and engagement strategies for survivors of interpersonal violence. Community PARTNERS will extend this relationship so that we can assist you with strategies to improve care for children in foster care who have witnessed interpersonal violence as well as their foster and/or biological parents who have experienced this form of violence.

The proposed program would contribute to the ever-increasing needs of domestic violence victims, especially those involved in the foster care system in Queens. Should the application be selected for funding, we will look forward to continuing our current advisory relationship.

Thank you for your continued support of domestic violence victims and their families.

Sincerely, your agency will maintain on file the donor's statement and that to the best of your agency's knowledge that statement is accurate.
