

THE PUBLIC SERVICE PUZZLER

JUNE 2025

Editor: Rob Casimir

ETHICS ADVENTURERS, ASSEMBLE!

This month's Public Service Puzzler pays homage to the #1 Most Played Government Ethics-themed Tabletop Roleplaying Game in the WORLD: Escape from the Dinkins Building— now available from the New York City Conflicts of Interest Board. Whether playing with a group of your friends and coworkers or just reading the hilarious instructions for fun, Escape from the Dinkins Building is an ethical adventure for all ages and attributes! There's never been a better time to simultaneously learn ethics and roleplay as a magical gnome! See for yourself today! Or maybe save it for after the Puzzler, because this month's cryptic conundrum will almost certainly leave you scratching your wizarding cap:

Arthur and Beowulf head down to Ye Olde Municipal Tavern after a hard day's work to meet other public servants and discuss their absolute favorite book: Chapter 68 of the New York City Charter (now available in Scroll + Grimoire). Soon, they meet Calliope, who has just booked her training with the COIB and is quite enthusiastic about government ethics! While making introductions, though, Calliope challenges Arthur and Beowulf to guess her birthday, giving them ten possible dates to choose from:

May 15, May 16, May 19
June 17, June 18
July 14, July 16
August 14, August 15, August 17

Calliope then tells Arthur the month she was born. She tells Beowulf the day. Arthur replies, “I don’t know when Calliope’s birthday is, but I know Beowulf doesn’t know either!” Which causes Beowulf to state that “at first I didn’t know when Calliope’s birthday was — but I know now.” Finally, Arthur responds, “OK, well, then I also know when Calliope’s birthday is.”

So, when is Calliope’s birthday? Send us a correct answer by July 15th for a chance to be selected as winner and placed within the ring of honor that is THE JONATHAN HOFFMAN + PETER KONTOGIANNIS HALL OF ETHICS AND EXCELLENCE, alongside such ethics heroes as JACK SHVARTS, Assistant Principal at the Academy of Hospitality and Tourism at Erasmus Hall! His perfect response to last month’s Puzzler makes him our current champion. But next month? You!
