Final Agency Decision

On March 17, 2025, following a virtual trial at which Respondent failed to appear, Administrative Law Judge Michael D. Turilli of the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings issued a Report and Recommendation ("OATH R&R") in the above-captioned matter. OATH found that Petitioner established all charges alleged under the Administrative Code for failing to properly perform and complete home improvement work that was required under its contract with the owners of the residential building located at 1672 81st Street in Brooklyn, and all charges alleged under title 6 of the Rules of the City for failing to include certain required information within the home improvement contract. OATH recommended that Respondent be ordered to pay $9,000 in civil penalties and $150,435.33 in restitution.

The Department of Consumer and Worker Protection ("Department") now issues this Final Agency Decision pursuant to section 2203(h)(l) of the New York City Charter and section 6-02 of title 6 of the Rules of the City of New York. The Department received a written request from Petitioner to adopt the OATH R&R. The Department did not receive any written argument from Respondent.

Following review of the record, the Department adopts the OATH R&R without modification. Respondent is ordered to pay $9,000 in civil penalties to the Department and $150,435.33 in restitution to the owner of the residential building, Concetta DiGrigoli.
