

Notice of Certification

For Applicants for Construction Work in New York City

This notice informs you of any legally required certifications, trainings, or other designations you must have to do construction work at a worksite in New York City. A Construction Labor Provider must give you this notice, in English and in your primary language, before you sign an employment contract or otherwise agree to work for this provider. You must get an updated notice anytime requirements change without undue delay.

I. Required certifications, trainings, or other designations:

--

II. Expected cost of required certifications, trainings, or other designations:

--

III. Party responsible for paying cost of required certifications, trainings, or other designations:

- Construction Labor Provider
- Construction Worker

Construction Labor Provider that completed Notice of Certification:
Business Name:
Address:
Department of Consumer and Worker Protection License Number:

Signed Statement of Applicant:

I, _____ [print name], received this Notice of Certification in English and, if applicable, in my primary language of _____ [print language] before I was hired as a construction worker. I have read and understand this notice.

Date Notice Given to Applicant

Applicant Signature

Important: You are entitled to receive this notice in your primary language.