Requirement		Do you meet this requirement?
11	If you charge additional fees for credit card purchases, you must display the highest total price for each purchase (excluding sales tax). This means that if a purchase with a credit card would be higher than a cash purchase, the credit card purchase price must be displayed to customers. If you post both the cash and credit card price, the credit card price must be clear and conspicuous. You CANNOT: - Put a sign on the wall or at the register that notifies a fee is applied to all credit card sales. - Advertise a cash discount without including the higher credit card price. - Charge separate line items to credit card users on a customer receipt without clearly posting the total price prior to purchase. - Include a credit card surcharge warning on the item price tag. Tip: Visit https://dos.ny.gov/business-resources for more information and examples.	☐ Yes
	6 RCNY §5-24
12	If there are limitations on using credit cards, such as minimum purchase amounts, the policy must be clearly posted at or near each entrance and in all advertising that indicates credit cards are accepted.	☐ Yes
	6 RCNY §5-24(b)
Receipts
13	Receipts must be given to customers for purchases over $20 and upon request for purchases between $5 and $20. Tip: This does not apply to food and drink that is meant to be consumed on the premises.	☐ Yes
	6 RCNY §5-32
14	The receipt must include each of the following: - Date of purchase - Amount paid for each item - Total amount paid - Separate statement of tax - Business name and address	☐ Yes
	6 RCNY §5-32(c)
15	Receipts for audio, photographic, and video equipment that cost more than $100 must also include the make and model number of the item.	☐ Yes
	6 RCNY §5-32(c)(5)
