HHS ACCELERATOR

To respond to human services Requests for Proposals (RFPs), in accordance with Section 3-16 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules of the City of New York ("PPB Rules"), vendors must first kules of the City of New York (PPB kules), vendors must first complete and submit an electronic prequalification application using the City's Health and Human Services (HHS) Accelerator System. The HHS Accelerator System is a web-based system maintained by the City of New York for use by its human services Agencies to manage procurement. The process removes redundancy by capturing information about boards, filings, policies, and general service experience centrally. As a result, specific proposals for funding are more featured on program design, search and hudget funding are more focused on program design, scope, and budget.

Important information about the new method

- Pregualification applications are required every three years.
- Documents related to annual corporate filings must be submitted on an annual basis to remain eligible to compete.
- Prequalification applications will be reviewed to validate compliance with corporate filings, organizational capacity, and relevant service experience.
- Approved organizations will be eligible to compete and would submit electronic proposals through the system.

The Client and Community Service Catalog, which lists all Prequalification service categories and the NYC Procurement Roadmap, which lists all RFPs to be managed by HHS Accelerator may be viewed at http://www.nyc.gov/html/hhsaccelerator/html/ roadmap/roadmap.shtml. All current and prospective vendors should frequently review information listed on roadmap to take full advantage of upcoming opportunities for funding.

■ NOTICE

Notice of Adoption

Notice of Adoption to amend several rules to reduce regulatory burdens, increase equity, support small businesses, and simplify and update content to help public understanding and compliance.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN the Commissioner of the Department of Consumer Affairs by Sections 1043 and 2203(f) of the New York City Charter and Section 20-104(b) of the New York City Administrative Code, and in accordance with the requirements of Section 1043 of the New York City Charter, that the Department amends several rules in Chapters 1 and 2 of Title 6 of the Rules of the City of New York ("RCNY") relating to bond requirements, newsstands, electronic and home appliance service dealers, and storage warehouses.

This rule was proposed and published on May 23, 2018. A public hearing was held on June 22, 2018.

Statement of Basis and Purpose of Rule

The Law Department, the Office of Management and Budget, and the Office of Operations conducted a retrospective review of the City's existing rules, identifying those that should be repealed or modified to reduce regulatory burdens, increase equity, support small businesses, and simplify and update content to help public understanding and compliance. The review identified the amendments contained herein.

Specifically, the Department is making the following amendments:

- Section 1-06 of Chapter 1 of Title 6 of the Rules of the City of New York, which relates to the bond requirements for licenses, to fix a typographical error. This amendment does not make any substantive changes to the rule.
- Sections 2-61, 2-63, 2-64, and 2-65 of Part 1 of Subchapter G of Chapter 2 of Title 6 of the Rules of the City of New York, which relate to newsstands, to replace outdated references to the Art Commission of the City of New York with updated references

- to the New York City Public Design Commission. The Art Commission of the City of New York no longer exists.
- Section 2-253 of Subchapter X of Chapter 2 of Title 6 of the Rules of the City of New York to eliminate certain information required to be displayed by electronic or home appliance service dealers, such as the name of one owner or partner of the business. In the experience of DCA, this information is not helpful to a consumer who wants to file a complaint and is unnecessarily burdensome on the business to provide. A consumer can file a complaint about a business using the business's DCA license number and/or location. Additionally, this amendment eliminates the requirement that a business provide to consumers on request a copy of DCA's regulations governing electronic or home appliance service dealers. In DCA's experience, such information is not helpful to consumers and the regulations are readily available from the Department.
- Sections 2-321 and 2-322 of Subchapter BB of Chapter 2 of Title 6 of the Rules of the City of New York to increase the maximum amount that may be charged by a storage warehouse for a written estimate based upon a physical inspection. This increase of the maximum amount charged accounts for the passage of time since the rule was originally promulgated. This amendment also fixes a typographical error.

The amendments also include minor plain language edits throughout.

New material is underlined.
[Deleted material is in brackets.]

"Shall" and "must" denote mandatory requirements and may be used interchangeably in the rules of this department, unless otherwise specified or unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

This rulemaking also includes plain language and other minor changes to Section 4-01 ("Words and phrases defined") identified during the retrospective rules review conducted by the Mayor's Office of Operations with the City's rulemaking agencies, the Law Department, and the Office of Management and Budget.

Based on DOT's final review of the aforementioned amendments, the new penalty set forth in Section 3-01 (for failure to register a business using a bicycle for commercial purposes with the Department) has been changed from $250 to $100 to be consistent with the penalty requirements of Section 10-157(g) of the Admin.
