Foreign Education Evaluation Guide

This document has been optimized for screen reader access and text-to-speech conversions.

What You Need To Know:

- In order to receive credit in the examination for your foreign education, you must have your foreign education evaluated by one of the approved services listed in the Approved Foreign Education Evaluation Services section that begins on Page 3.
- Refer to the Notice of Examination to find out whether you need a "document-by-document" evaluation (general) or a "course-by-course" evaluation (which includes a "document-by-document" evaluation) of your foreign education.
- The cost of evaluating your foreign education is paid by the applicant.
- Your evaluation must be received no later than 8 weeks from the date specified on the Notice of Examination. If your evaluation is not received by this time, your foreign education will not be rated and you may be found "not qualified". An extension of this time limit is available if the evaluation service submits an acceptable reason in writing for the delay.
- All acceptable foreign education evaluations submitted by the evaluation service directly to the New York City Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) will be retained in a permanent file for future reference.

However, if a document-by-document evaluation is on file with DCAS and you are now applying for an examination that requires a course-by-course evaluation to meet the education qualification, you will need to have an evaluation service send DCAS a course-by-course evaluation to update your evaluation retained on file.

- If you are having a foreign education evaluation sent to DCAS for the first time and you are applying for multiple exams in the same month, the evaluation service that you use only needs to send DCAS one foreign education evaluation (document-by-document or course-by-course).

As a reminder, a course-by-course evaluation includes a document-by-document evaluation.

- Photocopies of foreign education evaluations received from candidates will not be accepted and may be returned or discarded.
- Only foreign education evaluations submitted directly to DCAS by an approved evaluation service on letterhead that may include a raised seal or an original stamp on the evaluation will be accepted.
- If you previously had a foreign education evaluation done by one of the approved evaluation services listed for another purpose, DCAS will accept your foreign education evaluation provided that it is stamped “certified duplicate original” and received directly from that evaluation service.

Additional Information:

In order to obtain an official confirmation that DCAS has received your foreign education evaluation from the evaluation service that you selected, we recommend that you have a stamped, self-addressed postcard included by the service when your evaluation is sent to DCAS. We will return the postcard to you to acknowledge that your foreign education evaluation has been received. Due to the number of foreign education evaluations received, a delay may occur in confirming the receipt of your evaluation by telephone, email, or in-person inquiries.

Have the evaluation service include:

- Your full name and 9-digit social security number on the evaluation; and
- The Exam Title and Exam Number of the examination you are applying for on the envelope
- A stamped, self-addressed postcard for DCAS to return to you as confirmation of receipt of your foreign education; if you prefer to select this option

Have the evaluation service mail your completed original evaluation to:

New York, NY 10007

The next page lists the approved evaluation services that you may use to evaluate your foreign education. Your foreign education evaluation must be submitted by an approved evaluation service directly to DCAS to be accepted.
