

April 2023

Working for the City of New York offers rewarding career opportunities serving our communities. With over 80 City agencies and thousands of job types, there is something for everyone in city government. This newsletter provides updates about job opportunities, upcoming civil service exams, available internships and fellowships, and career events.

The NYC Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) helps support the recruiting and hiring needs for city government. Our Office of Citywide Recruitment partners with educational institutions and community-based organizations across the five boroughs to share information about city government jobs and the civil service examination process. This newsletter will provide you with the news and information you need to take the next step in your career.

If this is your first time seeing this newsletter, consider subscribing to receive this newsletter monthly via email.

Week In Review | April 2 – April 8

This past week, we did so much for the people who weave our city's tapestry. From a groundbreaking labor agreement with our brave NYPD officers to the work the DCAS team does in connecting New Yorkers who need jobs with opportunity at their regular hiring halls, you reminded our neighbors that this town is powered by working people.
