

WHEREAS, JAMES D'AMBROSIO, District Supervisor, for the Fleet Services Division of the New York City Police Department, left City service on May 1, 2026, after thirty-five years of distinguished service to the people of the City of New York; and

WHEREAS, he entered City Civil Service in February 1, 1991, as a Teacher of Automotive Mechanics for the then NYC Department of Education, now NYC Public Schools; and

WHEREAS, in continued service to the City and in recognition to his hard work and dedication, he rose through the ranks to become a Supervisor of Mechanics (Mechanical Equipment) for the New York City Police Department (NYPD); and

WHEREAS, JAMES D'AMBROSIO, educator, craftsman, and mentor has instructed hundreds of Career and Technical Education students of NYC Public Schools, oversaw the maintenance and repair of New York City Police Department vehicles and equipment, led safety training for the NYPD as part of the City's Vision Zero initiative to eliminate preventable deaths and injuries from vehicle collisions, and coordinated with the New York City Department of Citywide Administrative Services and NYC Public Schools to administer the High School Automotive Internship Program, to the benefit of the City; and

WHEREAS, his dedication to public service earned him the deep respect and appreciation of his colleagues, who saw fit to nominate him for The Hundred Year Association of New York's Isaac Liberman Public Service Award, which he received in 2016;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it PROCLAIMED, that the Commissioner and the staff of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services and the Fleet Directors and Agency Transportation Coordinators representing all agencies express their appreciation to JAMES D'AMBROSIO for his long and distinguished service to the City of New York, especially his support of generations of students from the automotive public high schools, and sincerely wish him a rewarding Retirement, success in all his future endeavors, and continued good health for him and his family; and be it further

PROCLAIMED, that this resolution, appropriately prepared with the Seal of the City of New York, be signed and presented to JAMES D'AMBROSIO.
