WHEN TO APPLY: From: March 7, 2018
To: March 20, 2018

APPLICATION FEE: $68.00

If you choose to pay the application fee with a credit/debit/gift card, you will be charged a fee of 2.49% of the payment amount. This fee is nonrefundable.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR READING THIS ENTIRE NOTICE BEFORE YOU SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION.

This is a Qualified Incumbent Examination. See the HOW TO QUALIFY section to see if you meet the Minimum Qualification and New York City Employment Requirements.

THE SALARY: Salaries will be commensurate with the level of responsibility of the managerial assignment and will be consistent with the Managerial Pay Plan.

HOW TO QUALIFY: This is a computer-based Qualified Incumbent Examination. Your qualifications and New York City employment will be evaluated online and you will receive immediate tentative results. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the Minimum Qualification and New York City Employment Requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are found "Not Qualified," your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

All education, license(s), certification(s) and/or experience used to meet the Minimum Qualification Requirements must have been obtained by the last day of the Application Period.

Minimum Qualification and New York City Employment Requirements: You must be currently employed by New York City as a provisional Administrative Fire Protection Inspector and have served as a provisional

Administrative Fire Protection Inspector for at least two (2) years and you must meet the following Minimum Qualification Requirements:

1. Seven (7) years of satisfactory full-time experience including two (2) years in a progressively responsible managerial or administrative capacity, in one or more of the following:
 - a. the manufacture or storage of explosives or flammables;
 - b. the development of safety standards for the manufacture or storage of such materials;
 - c. the inspection of premises where such materials are manufactured, stored or housed to detect potential fire and explosion hazards;
 - d. the design, installation, operation, repair and testing of sprinkler systems, standpipes, or other fire detection or fire extinguishing systems; or
2. Education and/or experience equivalent to "1" above. Education from an accredited college, university, or technical institution with specialization in fire science technology, chemistry, physics or engineering may be substituted for the general experience requirement on the basis of one year of education (30 credits) for one year of experience. However, all candidates must have the two years managerial or administrative experience described above.

License Requirement: On the date of appointment as an Administrative Fire Protection Inspector, possession of a Driver License valid in the State of New York is required. Class 7 is not acceptable.

The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional, or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA) (if applicable). The technical, trade or vocational high school must be approved by a State's Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization (if applicable).

If you were educated outside the United States and you are using your foreign education to meet the Minimum Qualification Requirements, then you must have your foreign education evaluated at your own expense to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation are listed on the Foreign Education Evaluation Guide located on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/foreigneducation.pdf. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education. You must have one of these services submit its evaluation of your foreign education directly to the Department of Citywide Administrative Services prior to being considered for selection from the eligible list for permanent appointment.

You must select the applicable Qualification and New York City Employment options on your Qualified Incumbent Examination. You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (March 20, 2018) to complete and submit your Qualified Incumbent Examination by clicking on the "Final Submit" button or it will be automatically submitted after midnight on the last day of the Application Period (March 20, 2018). Once your Qualified Incumbent Examination is final submitted, it will be rated based on the information you provided and saved. If you are found "Not Qualified," you will not be able to submit new or additional information about your Qualifications or New York City Employment online. All education, license(s), certification(s) and/or experience used to meet the Minimum Qualification Requirements must have been obtained by the last day of the Application Period.

Character and Background: Pursuant to Criminal Procedure Law Section 2.10, the position of Administrative Fire Protection Inspector is designated as a Peace Officer position. Accordingly, proof of good character is an absolute prerequisite to appointment since you must meet the requirements for Peace Officer status after successful completion of a prescribed training course. The following are among the factors which may be cause for disqualification: (a) conviction of an offense, the nature of which indicates lack of good moral character or disposition toward violence or disorder, or which is punishable by one or more years of imprisonment; (b) two or more convictions of an offense, where such convictions indicate disrespect for the law, (c) discharge from employment, where such discharge indicates poor behavior or inability to adjust to discipline; (d) dishonorable discharge from the Armed Forces.

Residency: Pursuant to New York State Public Officers Law, you must be a resident of the City of New York at the time of appointment. However, if you have completed two years of employment with the City of New York, you may be a resident of Nassau, Westchester, Suffolk, Orange, Rockland or Putnam counties.

English Requirement: You must be able to understand and be understood in English.

Proof of Identity: Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with the City of New York.

Citizenship Requirement: United States citizenship is required at the time of appointment.

Peace Officer Training Certification Requirement: You must satisfy the training requirements established by the State of New York for Peace Officers. Once obtained, this certification must be maintained for the duration of your employment.

REQUIRED INFORMATION:

Affirmation Form: The Affirmation Form, which is found online, must be printed, signed, dated and sent by mail to the address on the form. If DCAS does not receive your completed Affirmation Form, your application will not be considered complete, and your name may not appear on the eligible list for this examination.

HOW TO APPLY: If you believe you meet the Qualification and New York City employment requirements in the "How to Qualify" section, submit an application on the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. Follow the onscreen application instructions for electronically submitting your application and payment, and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to file online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email addresses. All new OASys accounts require verification before a candidate can submit an application to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Verification is instantaneous for most accounts, but some accounts may require up to two (2) business days to be reviewed by a staff member and resolved. Email notification will be sent to those creating accounts that require additional documentation before they can be resolved. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account. The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets.

If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements, visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at <https://a856-eeexams.nyc.gov/OLEE/oasys/FAQFeeWaiver.aspx>.

You may come to the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers to file for this examination online and submit a money order payable to DCAS (Exams) or to submit documentation for a fee waiver.

Special Circumstances Guide: This guide is located on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/pdf_c_special_circumstances_guide.pdf and available at the DCAS

Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers. This guide gives important information about notifying DCAS of a change in your mailing address. Follow all instructions on the Special Circumstances Guide that pertain to you when you complete your "Application for Examination."

THE TEST: This is a computer-based Qualified Incumbent Examination. Your score will be determined by a Qualified Incumbent Examination consisting of an evaluation of your qualifications and New York City employment status. You will receive a score of 100 points for meeting the Qualification and New York City employment requirements listed above.

You must select the applicable Qualification and New York City Employment options on your Qualified Incumbent Examination. You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (March 20, 2018) to complete and submit your Qualified Incumbent Examination by clicking on the "Final Submit" button or it will be automatically submitted after midnight on the last day of the Application Period (March 20, 2018). Once you have selected the applicable Qualification Option you must indicate how you meet the selected Qualification Option (limit of 1,000 characters). Once your Qualified Incumbent Examination is final submitted, it will be rated based on the information you provided and saved. If you are found "Not Qualified," you will not be able to submit new or additional information about your Qualifications or New York City employment online.

All education, license(s), certification(s) and/or experience used to meet the Minimum Qualification Requirements must have been obtained by the last day of the Application Period.

CHANGE OF MAILING AND/OR EMAIL ADDRESS: It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change to your mailing address and/or email address. If we do not have your correct mailing and/or email address, you will not receive information about your exam(s), consideration for appointment and/or important information that may require a response by a specified deadline. Change of mailing and/or email address requests submitted to any agency other than DCAS, such as to the United States Postal Service, will NOT update your records with DCAS.

To update your mailing and/or email address with DCAS, you must submit the change request by mail or in person. Your request must include your full name, social security number, exam title(s), exam number(s), previous mailing and/or email address, and your new mailing and/or email address. Your request can be mailed to DCAS Records Room, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007 or brought in person to the same address Monday through Friday from 9AM to 5PM. The following link will provide you with the DCAS Data Correction Form: <http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/dp148a.pdf>.

THE TEST RESULTS: Immediately after you have submitted the examination online, you will be informed of the tentative results. If you are found Qualified, you will receive a tentative score of 100.000. At the time of establishment of the eligible list for this examination, your score will become final, your name will be placed in final score order on the eligible list, and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your final test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for permanent appointment when your name is reached on the eligible list. To learn more about the civil service system go to: http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/html/work/civilservice_1.shtml.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Application Receipt: You will be emailed a receipt immediately after you have applied for the examination. If you do not receive this receipt, contact DCAS at OASys@dcas.nyc.gov. Include your social security number and the examination number and title in your email.

PENALTY FOR MISREPRESENTATION: Any intentional misrepresentation on the application or examination may result in disqualification, even after appointment, and may result in criminal prosecution.

The General Examination Regulations of the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS) apply to this examination and are part of this Notice of Examination. They are posted at nyc.gov/dcas and copies are available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers.
