Medical Requirement:

Medical guidelines have been established for the position of Youth Development Specialist. Candidates will be examined to determine whether they can perform the essential functions of the position of Youth Development Specialist. Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable him or her to take the examination, and/or to perform the essential functions of the job.

The Protection Of People With Special Needs Act:

Article 20 of the NYS Executive Law and Article 11 of the NYS Social Services Law requires an inquiry to determine whether a candidate being considered for employment to a position with the potential for regular and substantial contact with individuals receiving services has been found responsible for serious or repeated acts of abuse or neglect through a check of the Vulnerable Persons' Central Register that includes a Staff Exclusion List maintained by the NYS Justice Center for the Protection of People with Special Needs. Candidates who are on the Staff Exclusion List will not be hired or assigned to such a position.

Section 424-a of the NYS Social Services Law requires an inquiry as to whether a candidate who is actively being considered for employment and who will have the potential for regular and substantial contact with children is, or has been, the subject of an indicated child abuse and maltreatment report on file with the Statewide Central Register for child abuse and maltreatment. Register checks will be obtained as part of the background screening process for selected candidates where the inquiry of the Vulnerable Persons' Central Register did not uncover disqualifying information. Candidates who have been the subject of an indicated report on the State Central Register of child abuse or maltreatment may be excluded from employment as a Youth Development Specialist.

Under Section 378-a of the Social Services Law and Section 845-b of the Executive Law, the Administration for Children's Services must request that the Justice Center for the Protection of People Special Needs request and receive criminal history information of candidates who will have regular and substantial unsupervised or unrestricted contact with individuals receiving services. Convictions will be reviewed and evaluated to determine if the convictions are directly related to the job or pose an unreasonable risk, considering the factors set forth in Article 23-a of the Correction Law. Executive Law Section 845-b(5) lists the following convictions that constitute presumptive cause for disqualification:

- A felony conviction at any time for a sex offense;
- A felony conviction within the past 10 years involving violence;
- A conviction for abandoning a child and/or endangering the welfare of an incompetent, physically disabled or vulnerable elderly person pursuant to sections 260.00, 260.25, 260.32 or 260.34 of the Penal Law;
- Any similar offense in any other jurisdiction outside of New York State.

If an applicant's criminal history reveals a conviction for any of these types of crimes, he or she cannot be hired unless the Justice Center determines that the health, safety, and welfare of the provider's clients would not be jeopardized.

Appointment into this title is subject to the Federal Regulations of the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA). As per 28 C.F.R. Section 115.317, the Administration for Children's Services will not hire or promote anyone who may have contact with residents in juvenile facilities, and who has engaged in sexual abuse in a prison, jail, lockup, community confinement facility, juvenile facility, or other institution (as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1997); or who has been convicted or civilly or administratively adjudicated to have engaged or attempted to engage in sexual activity in the community facilitated by force, overt or implied threats of force, or coercion, or if the victim did not consent or was unable to consent or refuse.

All candidates considered for appointment will be fingerprinted and subject to a criminal history check.

Vaccination Requirement:

As of August 2, 2021, all new hires must be vaccinated against the COVID-19 virus, unless they have been granted a reasonable accommodation for religion or disability. If you are offered city employment, this requirement must be met by your date of hire, unless a reasonable accommodation for exemption is received and approved by the hiring agency.

You must be able to understand and be understood in English.
