Graduation from an accredited law school may be substituted for one year of the required experience. However, all candidates must have at least two years of experience as described above.

READ CAREFULLY AND SAVE FOR FUTURE REFERENCE

Note: The term "disposition" refers to activities concerning approvals for the development or improvement of publicly-owned land, such as, for example, the preparation of packages for Uniform Land Use Review Procedure or Urban Development Action Area Act approvals. Experience as a real estate broker, real estate salesperson, manager of real estate, or similar experience which is primarily involved with the sale, lease, rental, or managing of real estate, or experience which is primarily involved with the monitoring of construction is not acceptable.

The high school diploma or its educational equivalent must be approved by a State's Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization. The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional, or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education and by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA). The law school must be accredited by the American Bar Association or the California Bar Association.

The education requirement must be met by June 30, 2023. The experience requirement must be met by the last day of the Application Period (February 28, 2023).

If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. This is required only if you need credit for your foreign education in this examination. (For more information see the "Foreign Education Evaluation Guide" in the "Required Information" section.)

You must clearly specify in detail all of your relevant education and/or experience on your Education and Experience Exam and submit it by the end of the Application Period.

During the Education and Experience Exam (EEE), you may answer questions about your experience. If your experience was on a part-time basis working less than 35 hours per week, you will need to convert your part-time experience to full-time experience using the formula below. Once you have determined your full-time experience equivalent, use this amount to answer questions about your experience.

$(\text{number of hours worked per week}/35) \times (\text{number of months worked})$

For example, if you worked at a job for 21 hours per week for 12 months, you would make the following calculation: $21/35 \times 12 = 7.2$ months.

You have until midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (February 28, 2023) to clearly specify in detail all of your relevant education and experience and Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in the Online Application System (OASys). Once you Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in OASys, you will not be permitted to submit new or additional information on your Education and Experience Exam online.

If you do not Final Submit your Education and Experience Exam in OASys by midnight Eastern time on the last day of the Application Period (February 28, 2023), your examination will be considered incomplete, you will not receive a score, you will not be invited to subsequent portions of this examination (if applicable), and your application fee will not be refunded.

You will not receive credit for education which you obtain after June 30, 2023 or experience which you obtain after the end of the Application Period (February 28, 2023).
