Audience Engagement:

Who are your organizational target audiences, and how do you reach them? Include the following:

- Audience Development: Who are the people you wish to serve through (a) your organization in general and (b) your proposed project? How do you engage them?
- Outreach: What strategies do you use to reach your target audience? Describe any communication efforts or plans you have developed.
- Inclusion: Describe what your organization does to make it easier for your target audience to participate in your programming. You can include, but are not limited to, measures you take to make participation more affordable, methods you have used to address the needs of non-English language speakers or English language learners, and approaches you take to integrate audience feedback in program planning.

Request Amount ($):	$25,000
Discipline:	Music
Borough (s):	Brooklyn;Manhattan;Queens
Council District(s):	Brooklyn Council District #36;Manhattan Council District #7;Queens Council District #29

Provide a proposal of your project while keeping the evaluative criteria in mind. Include the following components

- Introduce your project: Very briefly describe what it is and who it is for.
- Public Service and Impact: What is the need or issue your project aims to address? Explain the service and describe its proposed impact. How are you positioned to do this work?
- Activities: What are the activities and the project timeline? Be sure to describe what the project consists of including the number, timing, and frequency of activities as well as their proposed locations. You can also include project structure; any relevant partnerships, artists, or arts workers and their roles; or other details important to the project.
- Planning: How do you plan and implement your project? How are creative, curatorial, or pedagogical decisions determined?
- Goals: What are the goals and outcomes of your project during the fiscal year? If you plan to do so, how will you assess or evaluate?

Your project proposal should be readable and cohesive for panelists to review. Paragraph breaks count as a single character

Staff Information:

Enter the total number of staff—paid and unpaid—working for your organization. Full-time employees are permanent staff members working 35+ hours a week.

If your organization has a mission that is broader than arts and culture, only provide information about your staff involved in arts and culture programming.

Total Number of Staff:	1
Total Number Paid:	1
Total Number Full-time:	1
Number of members on your full board:	5

With regard to your staff and board, how do you define and foster a culture of diversity, equity, and inclusion? Include the following: — INVESTMENT: How does your organization develop underrepresented voices in the cultural workforce? — GOALS: What measurable efforts and objectives have you created towards diversity, equity, and inclusion? Where are you in the process, and how successful have you been in reaching these goals? — WORKFORCE: What is your strategy to recruit and retain a diverse workforce? This includes administrative/artistic staff, leadership, and board.
