CERTIFICATE            26276

RESOLVED That the Design Commission, having considered designs for the reconstruction of the New York City Police Substation (formerly Times Square Sweep-up Booth, formerly Times Square Information Booth), Broadway and 43rd Street, 43rd Street between Broadway and 7th Avenue, Manhattan, submitted by the New York City Police Department, represented by exhibits 529-DS, DT, DU & DV of record in this matter, hereby gives to the same unanimous preliminary approval to the building design except for the relocation of the two mosaics by Edward Meshekoff, which the Commission recommends remain in place (see certificate #26277). Approval is given with the understanding that (1) the rooftop signage will match the existing signage font and kerning; (2) the NYPD will develop the projections and interior designs (which will be visible through the glass storefront) to ensure that the building is inviting to the public; and (3) the mosaics will remain in place or a revised relocation proposal for the mosaics will be submitted before the project returns for final review. Commissioner Tisch recused herself.

Preliminary approval is conditioned upon submission of this project for final review and approval before July 17, 2019.
