

A close-up, grayscale photograph of hands wearing nitrile gloves, positioned as if about to shake hands. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the texture of the gloves and the contours of the hands.

HIV Treatment Protects Everyone

NYC[™]
Health

Safe and effective medicines help people with HIV live long and healthy lives.

Most people who take HIV treatment as prescribed have a low, undetectable level of HIV and cannot pass the virus to others during sex.