

HIV Treatment Protects Everyone

Safe and effective medicines help people with HIV live long and healthy lives.

Most people who take HIV treatment as prescribed have a low, undetectable level of HIV and cannot pass the virus to others during sex.

