KURIANSKY NAMES DCAS INSPECTOR GENERAL AT DOI

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1999 -- EDWARD J. KURIANSKY, Commissioner of the Department of Investigation (DOI), today announced the appointment of ROBERT JOYCE as Inspector General for the Department of Citywide Administrative Services (DCAS).

In announcing the appointment, Commissioner Kuriansky noted that Mr. Joyce has had a long and distinguished career at DOI. "The City is certainly fortunate to have such a talented and dedicated professional willing to commit his time and energy to public service," he said.

Mr. Joyce began his career with DOI in 1981 as a Confidential Investigator. In 1989, he was promoted to Deputy Inspector General for the former Department of General Services. In 1996, he served as the First Deputy Inspector General for the Procurement, Real Property, Parks and Finance Unit before being named, in May 1998, Acting Inspector General for DCAS.

Mr. Joyce received his bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from St. John's University in 1981.
