THE CITY OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
NEW YORK, NY 10007

Summer 2014

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to share with you the 2014 edition of the New York City Youth Guide to Summer Fun.

Our city is always a dynamic place to be, but summer in New York brings its own special excitement. During the warmer months, our beaches, parks, playgrounds and other outdoor spaces become vibrant venues for great food, art, concerts, cultural festivals, sports and more. One of the guiding principles of my administration is inclusion – seeing to it that all of our residents have a chance to share in what our wonderful city has to offer. Whether you enjoy barbecuing in the park, splashing in pools or dancing into the evening, this guide lists more than enough events and activities to fill your family's summer days and nights.

On behalf of all New Yorkers, I thank the Department of Youth and Community Development and its partners for producing this terrific guide for New York City families. Chirlane and I wish all of you a fun, safe and healthy summer!

Sincerely,

Summer 2014

Dear Fellow New Yorkers:

I am very pleased to present the 2014 edition of the New York City Youth Guide to Summer Fun.

Our great City has something for everyone this summer. Whether it's the Bronx Zoo or Central Park Zoo, Barclays Center or Lincoln Center, SummerScreen or SummerStage, Fort Wadsworth or Fort Totten, there are thousands of attractions and events in the five boroughs to heat up your summer or help cool you down.

This indispensable guide is a collaborative effort between New York City agencies, museums, youth groups, libraries, arts organizations and cultural institutions. I thank them for helping to connect our young people and their families with the City's summer hot spots—many of them free or low cost.

Here's hoping everyone has a happy, healthy and safe summer of fun!

Sincerely,

Bronx Culture Trolley

First Wednesdays of the 2013–2014 season are: July 2, August 6, October 1, November 5 and December 3.

A program of the Bronx Council on the Arts (BCA), the First Wednesday Bronx Culture Trolley was initially conceived as the first action toward creating the South Bronx "Cultural Corridor," an arts-related economic development plan positioning the lower Grand Concourse as a "Gateway to the Arts in the Bronx." The trolley provides people with a fun way to get around and attend cultural venues that they might not otherwise have visited.

Edgar Allan Poe Cottage

Grand Concourse and East Kingsbridge Road. (718) 881-8900

Saturdays 10:00am–4:00pm

Sundays 1:00pm–5:00pm

America's first great literary master lived in this farmhouse at the end of his life, and today, the small, modest home looks very much as it did when Poe lived here 1846– 1849. While living at the cottage, Poe wrote Annabel Lee, Ulalume, The Bells and Eureka. Administered by The Bronx County Historical Society since 1975, the cottage is restored to its original appearance, with authentic period furnishings. A film presentation and guided tour help bring Poe Cottage to life. Visitors can see the bed in which Virginia died and the rocking chair Poe used. In the kitchen, the dishes on the table appear as if the great author had just stepped out for air. The house tour is complemented by an award-winning video that provides insight into the writer and the man. General Admission $3. Students/Seniors/Children $2. More info here.

Catch and Release Fishing

Catch-and-release fishing at the Harlem Meer is a favorite family and community pastime. Fishing poles are available to borrow at the Charles A. Dana Center, located on the north shore of the Meer. Picture ID required; instruction and bait (corn kernels) are provided with the poles. The Harlem Meer is a thriving aquatic ecosystem that supports a wide variety of fish, waterfowl, turtles, plants and microorganisms. Some of the fish living in the Meer include largemouth bass, pumpkinseed sunfish, bluegill sunfish, carp and chain pickerel.

Harlem Week

Harlem Week promotes and celebrates what Harlem was, is and will be. A series of events throughout the summer that bring together all age groups and cultures to celebrate the unique and diverse essence of Harlem.
